And in Edinburgh, by

REV. C. H. TERROT, and REV. EDWARD CRAIG.

 * * The Committee of the Church Missionary Society beg to suggest to the Committees and Officers of Associations, that the most convenient and economical mode of making their Remittances is through the medium of a Banker in the Country to the Society’s Bankers, through the Banking-house in Town with which the Country Banker corresponds, advising the Secretaries of the payment.*

PROPER FORM OF A DONATION TO THE SOCIETY BY WILL.

I GIVE and bequeath the sum of 1000/10/5 unto the Treasurer for the time being of a voluntary Society meeting in or near London, commonly called or known by the Name of “ The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East :” the same to be paid within months next after my decease, out of such part only of my Personal Estate as shall not consist of Mortgages or Chattels Real, in Trust, to be applied to the uses and purposes of that Society; and for which the receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge.

 * * Devises of land, or of money charged on land, or secured on mortgage of lands or tenements, or to be laid out in lands or tenements, are void; but money or stock may be given by Will, if not directed to be laid out in land.*

At the Thirty-third Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, April 30, 1833.

Sir ROBERT HARRY INGLIS, Bart. M.P. Vice-President, in the Chair.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY THE CLERICAL SECRETARY,

On a Motion by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Chester, seconded by the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel, Minister of St. John's Chapel, Bedford Row,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; and that, while the Society record, with feelings of affectionate respect, the death of their noble and justly-revered President, who had, for the space of twenty-one years, occupied that office, they acknowledge with thankfulness the mercy of God, in having spared the life of His servant to so advanced an age; and remember, with melancholy satisfaction, the holy simplicity, and the hearty and fervent spirit of devotion, with which, while health permitted, he ever delighted to preside over its Meetings.

On a Motion by the Hon. and Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, seconded by Rev. Hugh Stowell, Minister of St. Stephen's, Manchester,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That while the Meeting thankfully recognises the favour granted by Divine Providence to its Missionaries in Greece, Asia Minor, Egypt, and Abyssinia, they look with deep interest at the state of the countries around the Mediterranean; and are encouraged earnestly to hope that the present course of events in those countries will be so overruled as to facilitate and extend the preaching of the Gospel in regions once the favoured seat of the earliest and most flourishing Christian Churches, but which are now oppressed beneath the intolerance of Mahomedan Domination.

On a Motion by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Winchester, seconded by the Rev. Edward Bickersteth, Rector of Watton, Herts,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting cordially rejoices in the safe arrival in his Diocese of the Lord Bishop of Calcutta, the firm and long-tried friend of the Church Missionary Society; from whose paternal aid and counsel they anticipate much advantage to its Missionaries: and that, viewing the steady progress of Christian Missions in India, they are encouraged joyfully to look forward to the period, when the guilt and misery of Idolatry and Superstition shall give place to the peaceful triumphs of the Gospel.

On a Motion by the Most Noble the Marquess Cholmondeley, seconded by the Rev. George Hazlewood, Visiting Secretary of the Hibernian Auxiliary Church Missionary Society,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting thankfully acknowledges the protection graciously extended by Almighty God over the Mission in New Zealand, and the measure of success with which He has been pleased to crown the labours of His servants dwelling among its yet uncivilized inhabitants; and that, reviewing the whole extent of the Society's operations, the Meeting commends the great cause in which it is engaged to the sympathy, prayers, and persevering exertions of the Members at large.

On a Motion by the Rev. Henry Venn, Minister of Drypool, Hull, seconded by the Rev. Edward Ward, Vicar of Iver, Bucks,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the year ensuing, with power to fill up vacancies. (See List, after Vice-Presidents.)

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by Patrons, Vice-Patrons, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church.

II. The office of PATRONS of the Society shall be reserved for such Members of the Royal Family as may honour it with their protection. VICE-PATRONS shall be appointed exclusively from among the Peers, Spiritual and Temporal. The PRESIDENT shall be such Peer or Commoner, and the VICE-PRESIDENTS such Commoners, as may be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upwards, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upwards per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upwards, Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying to the amount of Fifty Pounds, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upwards shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Members for Life, or Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday, the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. A Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum, shall be called at any time, at the requisition of the General Committee; or by any Thirteen Members, on addressing a Letter to the Secretary, specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Rules of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones established, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the General Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church; and of all such Clergymen as are Members of the Society. Eighteen Members shall be annually appointed from the Old Committee, and Six from the General Body.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church) a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate, to the General Committee, proper persons, as Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and Vice-Presidents of the Society.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt proper means of augmenting the Subscriptions and Benefactions; to obtain Collections in Churches and Chapels; and to nominate, from time to time, to the General Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents for the Society in the principal Towns throughout the Empire.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to superintend their instruction, and to correspond with them when sent out.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Accounts is, to see that the Subscriptions are duly received, regulate the accounts, and undertake the charge of fitting out and conveying the Missionaries to their places of destination.

XVII. The General Committee shall receive the Reports of the other Committees, shall appoint the places where Missions shall be attempted, shall direct the scale upon which they shall be conducted, and shall superintend the affairs of the Society in general.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; the other Committees as often; and at such places as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee; and Three, each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered ex-officio Members of all Committees.

XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All Payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof, to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued:—The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon his designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He “prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help,” we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

NAMES OF MISSIONARIES, AND OTHER LABOURERS.

MAY, 1833.

 By MISSIONARY, is to be understood one in Holy Orders; and by CATECHIST, one who engages in such religious care and instruction of the people as may be consistent with his character as a Layman. The letter (m) means Married; (w) Widow.—Wives of Missionaries &c., though not named except when engaged in some specific employment, are always expected by the Society to lay themselves out to do good, in every practicable way, among the Native Females; as, by cultivating familiar intercourse with them, educating the children, and instructing the Adults.

CHURCH MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.

WHEN a disposition appears in any place to assist the designs of the Society by establishing an Association in its support, a Meeting of persons favourable to such a measure should be called. The friends who meet for this purpose should form themselves into a "Church Missionary Association, in aid of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and should proceed to appoint a Committee and proper Officers.

In large Towns, comprehending several Parishes, it may be expedient to appoint a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, and a Secretary; with a pretty numerous Committee, composed of persons from the different Parishes.

In Parochial Associations, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and a smaller Committee, under the Presidency of the Clergyman, may be best suited to conduct the business.

It may sometimes be found expedient to form Associations in Separate Congregations in the same Parish, rather than one Association in the Parish at large; and in this case, also, a Treasurer, Secretary, and Committee, under the Presidency of the Clergyman, will suffice to accomplish the object.

In a Voluntary Union of Friends, whether the members of the same family, the children of a school, or persons connected by affinity or friendship, such arrangements may be made as may prove most convenient to themselves.

In this manner, Benevolent Persons, willing to assist the designs of the Society, from the domestic circle to the largest town, may unite for a purpose most beneficial to their own minds, while it expresses a due regard to the glory of God in the salvation of the Heathen, and a proper sense of their own infinite obligations to Divine Mercy.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS SUITABLE FOR ASSOCIATIONS.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be, all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward, or, if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea; and also such Persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward, or, if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per Annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Reports of this Association, and also the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at all their General Meetings; and Collectors of One Shilling and upward per week will receive either a Copy of each Monthly Number of the Church Missionary Record, or the Annual Report of the Parent Society.—Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at all Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society.—Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors.

VI. The business of the Association shall be under the management of a Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, Secretaries, Governors, and a Committee not exceeding ———— Lay Members of the Established Church, and of all Clergymen who are Members of this Association. The Committee to meet on the ———— in the months of January, April, July, and October, at ———— o'clock; Five Members being competent to act.

VII. The object of the Committee shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed Persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society; and to recommend proper Persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary Information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VIII. The whole of the Funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society in aid of its designs.

IX. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day in the month of ———— as shall be found expedient (of which due notice shall be given), when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be presented.

&c. &c.

MATTHEW IX. 37, 38.

THEN SAID HE TO HIS DISCIPLES, THE HARVEST TRULY IS PLENTY, BUT THE LABOURERS ARE FEW. PRAY YE THEREFORE THE LORD OF THE HARVEST THAT HE WILL SEND FORTH LABOURERS INTO HIS HARVEST.

IN these words of our Blessed Saviour, He directs the attention of His Disciples to a lamentable fact, which came, at the moment, under His observation, and had called forth His deepest sympathy. As He passed through the towns and villages on His errand of mercy, He was moved with compassion, because He saw the multitudes, that they fainted and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. They had among them, indeed, their Scribes and Levites; but so grossly negligent of their charge were these blind guides, that the people—mocked rather than edified by their formal and ignorant ministrations—were still destitute, in a very awful measure, of profitable instruction. For want of it, they were given over to the saddest delusions; their souls, which might have thriven under faithful teaching, were brought into fearful peril; and they fainted under a burden of unpardoned sin. This drew from Him the declaration, “The harvest truly is plenteous, but the Labourers are few:” and He follows it up with the appropriate admonition to his hearers—“Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest, that He will send forth Labourers into His harvest.”

Now, the applicability of this to the occasion of my present address to you is self evident. I shall not detain you, therefore, with any unnecessary preface ; but, in dependence upon God's blessing, shall proceed at once to speak on these heads following, which the text suggests; namely:

I. THE SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE HEATHEN WORLD AT THIS DAY, AND THE POSITION IN WHICH THE CHRISTIAN WORLD IS PLACED WITH REFERENCE TO IT.

II. THE DUTY OF THE CHRISTIAN WORLD IN CONSEQUENCE, AND THE ENCOURAGEMENT TO THE PERFORMANCE OF THIS DUTY, DEDUCIBLE FROM THE TEXT AND FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE GENERALLY.

When these points shall have been discussed, a sufficient foundation will, I hope, be laid for my appeal to your Christian Principles on account of the Society which has called upon me to be its advocate: and you will give it your support bountifully as well as cheerfully, if it shall appear that there is nothing in its proceedings, or in the means employed by it, inconsistent with the excellency and the holiness of its professed designs.

I. THE STATE OF THE HEATHEN WORLD, AND THE POSITION IN WHICH THE CHRISTIAN WORLD IS PLACED WITH REFERENCE TO IT.

Our Lord's account of the case of His own country, contained in the former part of the Text, may be here adopted—The harvest truly is plenteous, but the Labourers are few.

The HARVEST, literally, is the standing crop, which is ready for the sickle, and, with due diligence, may be gathered in. It is not, therefore, to a hopeless state of things that our Lord's words direct our minds; though it is to a piteous one. Here is a vast and awful multitude of immortal souls, in a most perilous state, no doubt; but still, in a salvable state, supposing the appointed means to be used on their behalf. So that, however likely they may be, as circumstances are at present, to increase unto more ungodliness, and to be cast out finally as the worthless chaff, there is a possibility nevertheless, supposing circumstances changed, that they may be converted—any of them,—and so be brought as wheat into the garner.

This is implied in the figure or similitude before us: and that it is true, from first to last, will appear from the following particulars.

1. It has been supposed—of course upon a loose calculation—that the world which we inhabit may contain about eight hundred millions of human beings. A fourth part of these, perhaps, have the Gospel of Christ; and the countries which they occupy are, nominally at least, Christian countries. But the remaining six hundred millions—though there may be here and there a Christian Missionary among them—are, to speak of their general condition, all in darkness; being, with the exception of a few Jews dispersed in all quarters, either Mahomedans, or else Idolaters of various classes.—NOW THESE SIX HUNDRED MILLIONS OF BENIGHTED SOULS CONSTITUTE THE MIGHTY HARVEST; for the in-gathering of which it behoveth us to beseech the Lord of the Harvest to send forth an adequate supply of Reapers.

2. I said further, that it is implied in the Text, that, under the supposition of this needful supply being withheld, THESE SOULS ARE ABIDING IN A MOST PERILOUS AND PITEOUS STATE.

The main intention of my address to you, however, is not to show what manner or measure of evil must befall this multitude if you do not help them; but, rather, what benefit may accrue to them, if you do.

I shall not, therefore, seek to aggravate their case, or to quicken your apprehensions of the misery of it, by entering into a particular description of their horrible idolatries, and consequent degradation of mind and manners. Travellers have written enough respecting these things: and, when it is probable that you may very shortly hear more of them from persons who have better information of the facts than I have, it is unnecessary to repeat now what, in the general at least, is sufficiently acknowledged. Much less will I, in order to stimulate your exertions, deliver it to you as a doctrine, that these six hundred millions of people must, every individual of them, inevitably perish, if they shall not be brought to the explicit knowledge and belief of Christ;—for that is more than can be made to appear from Scripture. I know, indeed, that it is in Holy Writ declared that Christ's is the only Name by which we must be saved^a. And I know that upon this declaration our own Church has built her Article—"They are to be had accursed that presume to say, that every man shall be saved by the law or sect which he professeth, so that he be diligent to frame his life according to that law and the light of nature^b."—But whom does this condemn?—Those only, I conceive, who having heard the Gospel, and having read the Scriptures, do then make them a nullity, which mankind might very well have done without, by teaching that any man may be saved—NOT by Christ, notwithstanding his errors, which is a very different matter—but by those very errors themselves—by any religion, true or false—by Paganism, if he should but be sincere in it, as well as by Christianity. These persons it condemns; and well it may; but not the Heathen, on whose case it determines nothing: not such as may doubt whether the grace of Christ may not possibly reach further than the knowledge of his Name, on which question it determines nothing: neither, I trust, does it condemn me, though I should venture to hope well of some few among the Heathen—though I should even imagine the minds of a few of them might in some measure have been influenced by ONE above them, of whose influence they were themselves unconscious;—though, whilst I dare not affirm it as a verity, I should yet not dare to deny it as a possibility, that Christians may meet some such men in heaven, through HIS abounding mercy, whose love is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea^c.

But though, when I would argue from the evil condition of the Heathen to the obligation of Christians to send the Gospel to them, I reject as untenable the ground which has been mentioned—namely, the ABSOLUTE IMPOSSIBILITY of salvation without the EXPLICIT KNOWLEDGE of Christ—I am not therefore left without an argument deducible from consideration of their actual state. For, surely, it is not the fact, that the Heathen generally are, to use St. Paul's expression, a law unto themselves; doing by nature, or the light of conscience, the things contained in the Law of God^d. On the contrary, in St. Paul's time they were, generally at least, full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity—inventors of evil things—without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful^e. And if at this day—as I admitted, though I did not go into the particulars—they are no better; and if—whilst the Gospel is, as we know it to be, God's instrument for the healing of the nations^f—there is no other instrument given to us for that purpose, or which we can depend upon to make them better—certainly, looking at actual facts, we have call more than enough to propagate the Gospel; and if we will not propagate it, we do, by our conduct, either say to the Heathen, “We care not for your souls at all;” or else we say, “We commit you to your Idols—Be true to your stocks and stones, and your honest zeal for them may do as much for you, as our faith in Christ for us;” which is the very blasphemy which our Article disavows, and which certainly Holy Writ, from first to last, condemns. I say, then, the CONDITION OF AWFUL DANGER in which three parts of mankind are, at this day, abiding, is one main particular which must be taken into our most serious consideration for the direction of our practice with respect to them.

It would be to small purpose, however, if I should show that I was inviting you to a NEEDFUL undertaking; unless I could, at the same time, prove it to be a HOPEFUL one.

3. Remember, then, it was further observed, that THE HEATHEN WORLD ARE AT LEAST IN A POSSIBILITY OF BEING

^d Rom. ii. 14.

SAVED, supposing the appointed MEANS to be at length used on their behalf.

The Labourers are not yet ready, it is true: and that part of the case is to be considered presently. But, if the difficulty lies there—as, according to our Lord's putting of the case, it does—we have but to look to the Christian part of the world, and to observe the powers and advantages for instructing and influencing the heathen part providentially entrusted to them, and it will be manifest that the difficulty is not one which, under our Christian lights, can honestly be deemed insurmountable.

This may be made to appear more clearly, perhaps, by means of a comparison.

There was a time, then, when God raised up a single nation—ISRAEL—to be the keepers of His Word, and a light shining amidst the dark places of heathen ignorance and sin. And if you do but cast your eye over the map of the ancient world, you see, that having put His torch into their hands, He placed them just where the light might best shine, to catch the gaze of the great nations of the earth. But, though there never was a period of this people's history in which they might not have been the means of teaching the Heathen the knowledge of God's ways—though they did, in fact, from time to time, so shine before men^s as to bring in now and then a convert—and the Queen of the South came to hear the wisdom of Solomon^h—and there was one who could tell the Syrian monarch, in his distress for his noble servant, that there was a prophet in Israelⁱ—and though, in our Saviour's time, even the Scribes and Pharisees were not without zeal^j, and some of them might be wiser and honester than the rest—and though the true God had been heard of in the palace of the Queen of Ethiopia^k—and there was a Court of the Gentiles at Jerusalem in which they also worshipped Jehovah, though at a distance—and a Roman Centurion had learned enough of the Lord to have built a synagogue¹—and the pious Cornelius was a proselyte of the Gate, and prayed to God alway^m—and thus these people did bring something to pass as witnesses to the Truth; and they ought to have done, and might have done much more—yet what could they have effected, had they done their utmost, compared with that which the example of their small success may show to be so surely possible, at this day, to Christendom? Whilst the light entrusted to them was so much feebler than ours is, and the doctrine which they might have published so much less attractive, their means for the distribution of it were in the like proportion small. At first, they had to fight their way and stand their ground against the encroachments of the Heathen who remained among them: except for a very short period, they were never a very powerful nation, in comparison with the nations which surrounded them; and, except during the reign of Solomon, they were never, to any great extent, a commercial nation. The science, indeed, of navigation, which might have enabled them to carry their religion into foreign parts, was in its infancy; and the almost omnipotent art of Printing, through which now even the dead can proclaim the Word of Salvation to the world's end, had not been heard of. Indeed, considering the corruption of human nature, it might, perhaps, without any supernatural gift of prophecy, have been predicted—as it was foretold by Moses, and as it did, in fact, fall out—that the Jews, however unreasonably, would be more likely themselves to minge with the Heathen and to learn their ways, than to stand forward as a nation—as individuals of them did nobly on some occasions—to testify against idolatry, and exercise that influence which should win souls from among the sons of Belial.

But look at the ample opportunities, and at the peculiar talents and advantages which the CHRISTIAN WORLD possesses for this work. Its mere numerical strength is more than tenfold, compared with that of ISRAEL. So that, if it sent forth as many Labourers as it ought and might—though there should not be an end at once of that lamentable disproportion which now subsists between the Labourers and the harvest—there would be an end to it within some reasonable period; because, by God's blessing, it would come to pass, in time, that the heathen converts themselves would furnish a considerable and continually increasing quota of fellow-labourers. And then, surely, there is nothing to hinder the sending forth by Christians of as many Missionaries as can be found ready to go. For, if we except Central Africa, where is the portion of the globe into which Christians have not penetrated in the spirit of commercial adventure; in which their Colonies are not planted, or their Factories, at least, in possession of a station? The British Trader, especially, has access everywhere; and the British Empire has been calculated to comprise within its limits a sixth part of the population of the earth. Where the Trader settles to pursue his gains, might he not abide to give glory to God by his Christian example? And where the Merchant can come, might not the Missionary follow him?—God is not wont to leave Himself quite without His witnesses, at any time. And when there is not zeal enough in the visible Church to leaven the whole body, there are yet wont to be particular instances of zeal more than enough to rise up in judgment against the general mass and to condemn it; by proving the possibility of discharging those duties, on account of the difficulty of which the generality excuse themselves. And it is so in the case before us.

The Danes and the Dutch, for instance, had their Missionaries in countries now under our dominion before we ourselves came into possession of them. Few persons who have paid attention to the subject have failed to read of such men as Schwartz and Eliot and Brainerd and Martyn and Buchanan; and, not to multiply instances, we have only to glance at the Reports of the one Institution on behalf of which I am now addressing you, in order to perceive as much as is to my purpose in this part of my discourse; namely, that THE HEATHEN MAY EVERYWHERE BE APPROACHED; and that it is possible, in despite of dangers and difficulties and privation, and distance, and pestilential climates, to find individuals who will go among them any where, with as much zeal for their proper work as the Trader can display for his. And to this it must be added, that our Traders themselves, and our Colonists, are not now left, as once they were, in too great a measure, to exhibit to the native inhabitants of the East the spectacle of a large body of people almost without public religious ordinances, and making scarcely any noticeable religious profession. Our Episcopal Church has, at length, its Establishment in India; and the pious and gifted Bishops who have presided there have all been Labourers for the Heathen.

And now suppose that with this facility of access, and actual juxta-position in many instances, the Christian World, in general, did its duty; would the in-gathering of the harvest be then such a hopeless enterprise? We read in the Book of Esther, how, upon a certain occasion, *many of the people of the Medo-Persian empire became Jews, because the fear of the Jews fell upon them*ⁿ. If that remnant of a conquered people, through faith and prayer and piety, could render themselves so respected and could be made such effective teachers in the land where they were captives, what might not British residents bring to pass by an equal godliness, among Hindoos and Muselmans, in a land where they are masters? And, though this is not the exact position which Christians occupy everywhere with reference to Idolaters, they do surely stand everywhere upon high ground, and are armed with immense advantages. The Brahmin, doubtless, is conceited enough of what he calls his learning, and of his high caste; and the savage proud enough of his brute strength and personal activity; but yet every Heathen People must feel the vast superiority of Europeans, as soon as they come to know them, slow as they may

probably be to acknowledge it. At all events, the fact itself is so incontrovertible, that it would be waste of words to show in what respects Europeans are providentially qualified to exercise an influence over the minds of these people, and to be looked up to by them, did but their zeal bear that proportion to their talents which it ought. And then with respect to the direct business of instruction, or the work to be actually performed by Christian Missionaries, hard it is, I grant, under existing circumstances, and hard enough it still would be even if the Labourers were multiplied a hundredfold: but yet consider how much may be done for the education of children by our improved methods of teaching, in comparison with what could have been done without them. And add to this the new power of modern times—the Press. There is knowledge enough of languages among us, moreover, or at our command, to translate the Scriptures into all written tongues. They have, in fact, been translated, or parts of them, into some heretofore unwritten ones; and then the copies may be multiplied indefinitely. So that to circulate among the Heathen a thousand Bibles is probably a work far more practicable to a Christian Missionary than it would have been to the Apostle Peter to have furnished the household of Cornelius with a single manuscript of the Law. We have the MEANS then, if we had the MINDS; and He is not a hard Master, gathering where He hath not strawed^o, whose word says to each of us, “Son, go and work in my vineyard to-day^p.”

4. But can these dry bones live^q? it may be asked.—We have read, no doubt, of the strong barrier raised against the introduction of Christianity into India, by the dread which the natives have of losing caste. Some are fond of alleging the extraordinary stupidity of the Negroes. And we hear, it may be, of the untameable ferocity of one race of men, and of the peculiar addictedness of another to duplicity and falsehood; so that, profess what they may, it is impossible to be sure of them. Nevertheless, the worst that can be said, and the whole that ought to be said of any people, however barbarous, or however vicious, is, that they are born in sin, even as others. And the most infatuated worshippers of stocks and stones are not stocks and stones themselves; for it has not, I believe, been fully proved that any people has been found so brutish as to have preserved no notions of God at all. And therefore the Missionary who is to reason with the most degraded of them—for, indeed, it is as reasonable creatures that all men must be addressed, though as fallen ones—the Missionary therefore, I say, who is to reason with them will find as much in them to appeal to, and as much ground for himself to stand upon in arguing with them; not indeed as St. Paul found among the wise Jews of Berea, but certainly as much as was found at many heathen cities where the Lord added to the Church daily such as should be saved. Neither, be it remembered, has the Lord left himself without a witness here. I quote, in proof of this, one passage from a late Report of our own Society:—"The state of the Mission at Tinnevely," says that document, "continues to call for abundant thanksgivings unto God. At the end of 1830, the congregations in 261 villages consisted of 2289 families or houses, containing 8138 souls." But it seems, that "during the last six months there has been a decrease of seven villages, containing 257 souls. The actual deficiency," it is added, "is more than this, but is made up by the accession of new villages and families." I have chosen this passage, because it is not only a cheering statement, but, upon the face of it, an honest one. It tells plainly of backsliders as well as of converts. One in about one-and-thirty has fallen away: but if this is so far lamentable, it is not, I fear, new. We need not pass the seas to find a parallel to the lamentable part of it. That part, moreover, in the case quoted, is happily counterbalanced. And if in a congregation at home a few who once ran well should be gone back, even to gross sin, we should not say that the Gospel had brought little to pass in that place; much less should we doubt the honest reception of it altogether, if a multitude to all appearance were still adorning the doctrine by their godly lives. But if you would like a specimen from a more savage land, as thinking that impediments might be greater there, look at the South-Sea Islands, the fruit of the pious labour of the London Missionary Society. There we have a Christianized Country, though a small one, and an established Christian Church. And, if any should be disposed to call it rude and unsettled, let it be proved that there was more decency and order, greater light, or better fruits of righteousness, here in England among our barbarous forefathers, within as short a period of the time at which the first Christian instructors came to them to impart that glorious light which, through many an age of error and corruption, hath, at length, been handed down to us.

But I come to a sadder part of my subject. We have been speaking hitherto chiefly of what Christians MIGHT DO among the Heathen. It remains to inquire what they HAVE DONE.

5. Labourers have been sent, it seems; but the Labourers are few. The lamentable inadequacy, therefore, of the power actually employed by us to the work which we ought to have at heart is the matter to be dwelt upon now; and that, as I think, with shame.

No one, I suppose, who cares for the souls of men can be seriously of opinion that we have too many Labourers, even in England: and in places not a few, it can by no means be affirmed that we have enough. Look at this Metropolis: look at the majority of our great towns, and densely-peopled districts: and though many new churches have, of late, been erected for their use, and consequently many additional Christian Pastors been sent among them, yet who can say that they are provided for as they ought to be? But what is this, compared to the state of things abroad, even in those countries into which Missionaries have been sent? One hears sometimes, indeed, inflated statements; and a long list of barbarous-sounding names is quoted of places, East and West, under the Tropics and at the Pole, into which our noble zeal hath sent forth its Emissaries; so that the recital might almost lead an ignorant person to imagine that the sound of the Gospel had gone forth into all lands, and its words unto the ends of the world. But, alas! we must not call this the Sun of Righteousness, arisen without a cloud upon those vast regions. It is but as the twinkling coruscations of some few little glow-worms, scattered, here and there, over a wide space in a dark night. God forbid, indeed, that I should despise the day of small things, or that I should not regard every individual earnest Labourer with gratitude and deep reverence! But if all the workmen employed by all the Missionary Societies in the world should be counted, there are not perhaps, among six hundred millions of souls, a fourth part as many as are employed in preaching God's Word among about sixteen millions in Britain only! I quote the words of the late pious Secretary of this Society—speaking of some large cities of Hindoostan, in which country much, comparatively, has been done for Missions:—"Surat," he says, "has two hundred thousand inhabitants, and but two European Christian instructors — Patna has three hundred and twelve thousand inhabitants, and but one European instructor — Lucknow has three hundred thousand inhabitants, and no Missionary. The empire of China, with its one hundred and fifty millions of people, has but two or three European Missionaries for the whole. In the kingdom of Japan, with its untold millions, there is not one Ambassador for Christ."

I will not add another word respecting OUR DEFAULTS. I turn, as it is high time—

II. To the consideration of our DUTIES—Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest that He will send forth Labourers into His harvest.

But, before I proceed to press this exhortation, and to show, as was proposed, the Scriptural encouragement which we have to the performance of our duty, it is necessary to make one observation, that we may not limit or misconstrue our Saviour's meaning.

Be it remembered, then, that whatsoever an honest man sees it to be his duty to pray for, that same thing he will see it to be his duty also to labour for;—if, I mean, there be any lawful means by which he may labour for it; and much more if there be any divinely authorised or appointed means. For where this is the case, God has as clearly called him to work for the end desired, as to pray for it; and He has joined the two things together, as necessary concomitants. And therefore, though LABOUR WITHOUT PRAYER WOULD BE INFIDELITY, or a wicked recumbency upon our own strength, to the rejection of God's aid—PRAYER WITHOUT LABOUR, on the other hand, WOULD BE just as truly HYPOCRISY, and a presumptuous and unauthorised, and therefore offensive appeal to God, instead of a pious waiting upon Him in the way of His commandments. In all cases, therefore, where a man can do any thing himself for the attainment of a holy object, his prayer, in order to be accepted, must be the act of his mind committing his strenuous endeavours to the Lord, that His thoughts may be established;—such a faithful prayer, indeed, as simply hopes in God for the event; but such an honest prayer, at the same time, as pledges himself to all needful personal exertions.

Our Duty, therefore, in the case before us, must be divided into these two heads—the one plainly expressed, the other truly implied in our Saviour's admonition. First, WE MUST PRAY TO GOD TO RAISE UP AND PROSPER LABOURERS AMONG THE HEATHEN; and, Secondly, WE MUST DO OUR BEST, BY SUCH MEANS AS ARE IN OUR POWER, TO SEND THEM FORTH OURSELVES, AND TO SUPPORT THEM IN THEIR MINISTRATIONS.—Neither will it avail that one of these things is done by us, if we are so presumptuous as to leave the other undone. In this case, which ever be chosen, there will be no blessing, and then certainly there can be no success.

1. Let the miserable condition, then, of those who are without Christ, and their relation to ourselves as human beings, and the glory which would accrue to God by their conversion, be seriously pondered by us in the first place. For otherwise, that fervent desire on their behalf, which is of the very essence of intercession, will scarcely be awakened in us; much less will it be sustained so as to bring us to the Throne of Grace continually to seek their good. Let us also consider, at the same time, how sure a thing it is, that except the Lord build the house, their labour is but lost that build it^r—that though we have in our hands the sword of the Spirit^s, it is the Spirit HIMSELF alone who can give us strength and skill to wield it—that though we have all those facilities and opportunities which have been mentioned for bringing the Heathen to Christ, and they are the means which may do the work, and therefore the possession of them should animate our hopes, as certainly it does prove our responsibility—yet are we not sufficient of ourselves even to think any thing, in this matter, as of ourselves, but our sufficiency is of God^t. In addition to this, let us ponder God's actual promises to bestow that very blessing, and every part of it for the which we are to call upon Him—that He says to His Anointed One: It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation to the ends of the earth^u;—and that it is of HIM only to give Pastors and Teachers for the work of the ministry and for the edifying of the body of Christ^v;—and then upon this let us build our hopes, and in this faith pray unceasingly. For if such promises and declarations show, as indeed they do, that Prayer IS A WEAPON OF OUR WARFARE, mighty through God, and a talent committed by Him to our stewardship, we are as much accountable for the use of it as for the use of any other talent: and WHATSOEVER ELSE MAY BE ADDED TO IT, NOTHING MAY SUFFICE INSTEAD OF IT.—This is the first part.

^r Ps. cxxvii. 1.^s Ephes. vi. 17.^t 2 Cor. iii. 5.^u Isa. xlix. 6.^v Ephes. iv. 11, 12.

2. As to the other part—OUR OBLIGATION TO LABOUR AS WELL AS PRAY—little need be said in explanation of what is required of us, though something may be needful for the enforcement of it.

I am not addressing myself to persons whom I would exhort to go forth themselves as Missionaries: you have your several stations and places, and your consequent occupations and engagements; and therein it may be most expedient for you to abide with God. But if strict personal service is not required of you in this warfare, PERSONAL SACRIFICES, in the liberal free-will offering of your substance, cannot, consistently with a true concern for God's honour, be dispensed with. And you pledge yourselves to as much, every time that you say to God in prayer, "Thy kingdom come."

One of the last-written records of ministerial zeal and usefulness which I happen to have met with, is the life of Felix Neff, the Protestant Pastor of a parish in the High Alps, sixty miles in length, lying almost all the year round under the snows, and comprising many distant villages of most difficult and often very dangerous access. This devoted man might well feel, in his own peculiar situation, the distressing disproportion of the Labourers to the harvest; for indeed he stood alone. He did not, however, yield himself to despondency. Doubtless he gave himself to prayer^w; but he was not content with that: in addition to going about himself continually from village to village to preach to his scattered flock, he collected together a number of poor ignorant young men—for such only could be found in that situation—very slow and dull they were, though well-disposed, and he had every thing to teach them; yet, with great toil, and under almost every disadvantage and discouragement, he did teach them, till he had qualified them to be Catechists, and to go out, under his own directions, to help in the instruction of their neighbours. Now, I am not about to ask you to do as much as this;—but, as it is a part of the plan of our Society to instruct and support a number of Students, who, after due probation, are to go out as Missionaries, I would have you assist them by your contributions herein, as well as in their general work. I will mention a fact respecting Neff's parishioners. Living where they did, in the loftiest habitable spots of those vast mountains, it may well be supposed that they were wretchedly poor: and it was, literally, only once a year that they went down into the plain, to dispose of the little they had to barter—a few skins and a few miserable cattle—and it was only then that they ever beheld the sight of money, or had current coin of any sort in their possession. Nevertheless, even these poor people did send their contributions regularly, both to a Bible Society and to a Missionary Society; for God's providence had not curtailed their means, so much as His grace had enlarged their hearts.

For the Lord's sake, then, that He may be glorified—for the sake of the Christian world, that its shame may be removed—for the sake of the Heathen world, that its maladies may be healed—and, let me add, for the sake of the few zealous Labourers scattered up and down therein, that they may not break their hearts—let us, my Brethren, in measure proportioned to our much greater ability, go and do likewise. For surely, my Christian Brethren, to dwell a moment longer on the last-mentioned particular, a single Missionary forsaking his own kindred and his father's house, renouncing all the charities of home, and all the consolations of Christian society, to spend himself far away among the Heathen, whose language he must learn, whose climate he must endure, with whose manners and usages he must acquaint himself—whom, perhaps, in no accustomed sense of ours, he can ever make his companions and his friends, but on whose account, nevertheless, his heart is full evermore of cares—surely such a one, so labouring and so exhausting himself, presents to our minds a picture of distress, and prefers a claim to our sympathy and compassion, even more affecting, in some respects, than that of the objects themselves of his solicitude.

And indeed, whilst, with so much justice, he demands our help, his example is both for our rebuke and for our encouragement: for whilst it upbraids our lukewarmness, it witnesses that God's grace has not ceased to animate His Church.

*I beseech you, therefore, by the mercies of God, that, having yourselves freely received, ye would, as by the love of Christ constrained, freely give^x. And seeing the work, to which I would invite you, is one in which it is not easy, or rather in which it is scarcely possible, for us to act each by himself, but of necessity we must associate for the furtherance of it, let me invite you specially to a zealous co-operation with the particular Society for which I plead—as one which is conducted by members of our own Communion, in conformity with the principles and usages which we have ourselves adopted—as one which hitherto has made faithful use of such funds as its friends have already entrusted to its management—as an Institution which has been greatly owned and blessed by God with good success in its undertakings—but which has struggled, of late, under such accumulated difficulties, that instead of extending its operations to those who in all quarters are crying, Come over and help us^y, it was feared that it must have contracted them, and given up, perhaps, more than one hopeful field of labour already entered upon, unless Christians in England should be brought to feel more for the Heathen than they had done, and to exercise a liberality better proportioned to the means which they possess.*

But more special information on all these points will, no doubt, be laid before you speedily; and it rests in better hands than mine, both to certify you how far the friends of the cause have responded to the urgent calls made upon them since the publication of the last year's Report, and to let you know—as they will be enabled to do—that there is not one among the numerous and variously circumstanced Stations of our Society in which the work of God is not, by some instrumentality or other, carried on more or less successfully, as well as zealously. Therefore I only add, let not a Society whose operations have been long before the public, and which stands justified as a faithful steward, be crippled in its exertions, or fail of the support it merits, either through influence of any unreasonable jealousy, or because of any idle or hypercritical objections. I know that some will not cast their contributions into our treasury, because we are not this pious and useful Society or that, and our business is not conducted by the same hands which administer the affairs of some other excellent Institutions, and we do not carry on our work under the self-same patronage. But Christ has left His people no example of forbidding or despising those who follow not, in all things, with themselves: and perhaps it may be worth considering, whether it is so well that the whole Christian Treasury of a country should be all under one directory? and whether there may not be advantages arising from having more than one set, both of Agents and of Patrons? I think experience shows this to have been the fact. However, let every one be free to choose his own methods of doing good; but let no one turn his back too willingly upon any methods. "Some good persons," says Bishop Benson, "hinder themselves from doing much good in the world, because all that they do must be done in their own way: and many bad persons, whatever way any thing is done in, take care to find fault with that particular method, in order to frame an excuse, when indeed they are against every method. As to the former, if they will wait till all men are of one mind, and that their own, it is easy to see what good they are like to do in life: the only way to do any at all, is, to be always ready to assist in doing the most which can be compassed in the present circumstances of things and inclinations of persons. As to the latter, some fault may be found with every thing; and therefore they can never want an excuse, which they are always searching after, for being useless and worthless."²

² Sermon before the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.

This may suffice, I think, for reply to any thing that can be alleged against our particular Institution, or any other which is plainly well meant, and well conducted in the main. And then, for ENCOURAGEMENT, I will once more refer you briefly to my Text. Our Lord says Himself, Pray ye the Lord of the Harvest, that He would send forth Labourers into His harvest. And if, as I said before, every prayer offered by us is a pledge on our parts that we will exert ourselves in labouring for the thing prayed for; so I may say again, with reverence, every prayer specially commanded by God implies a pledge on His part, that He is ready, in His great mercy, to bestow that thing, whatsoever it may be, which He thus bids us ask. And, accordingly, the very next chapter which succeeds our Lord's admonition in the Text will be found to contain the history of His sending forth the Twelve Apostles to the lost sheep of the House of Israel^a.

Finally, if objections be taken, not to particular Missionary Societies, but to the general enterprise of preaching the Gospel to the Heathen—whether those objections be derived from the difficulties of the work, or, as sometimes they have been, from people's private interpretations of unfulfilled prophecies—or, be they founded as they may, any attempt at a special refutation of them is, I think, quite superfluous, if, in addition to what has been said already, it be considered that HE who is the sole Judge in the case has, in two brief sentences, absolutely overruled them all:—Go ye, He says, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. So long as these words shall stand in Holy Scripture as a commandment, to persist, according to the best methods which we can devise, in such undertakings as that to which I have now been calling you, will be our duty, let what will be urged against it.—And, lo! He adds, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world^b! And so long as these words stand in Holy Scripture as a promise, nothing but infidelity can make us think, at any time, that our labour, in such undertakings, can be in vain in the Lord.

But the time is short^c, whilst the work is great: and our own opportunity of labouring is passing away, whilst the Day of Account hastens on. What we have to do, let us do it quickly, and do it zealously, exhorting one another, and provoking one another to love and to good works; and so much the more, as we see that Day approaching^d.

THE COMMITTEE.

DELIVERED, IN SUBSTANCE,
TO THE ANNUAL MEETING,
HELD APRIL 30, 1833,
AT EXETER HALL, STRAND.

REPORT

DEATH OF VALUABLE FRIENDS.

IN presenting to the Subscribers and Friends of the Church Missionary Society the Thirty-Third Annual Report of its Proceedings, the Committee have, in the first place, to perform the melancholy duty of recording the decease of the Society's venerable and honoured President. The character of this excellent Nobleman, devout, holy, and free from guile, was so transparent to all, as to render it superfluous for the Committee to expatiate on that subject. They have only to recognise the mercy of God in having so long protracted the venerable years of His Servant, gathering him to his grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in his season.

The Committee have also to lament the decease, during the past year, of two of their Vice Presidents;—the one, James Stephen, Esq., the strenuous and unwearied Advocate of Africa, and her oppressed and benighted children;—the other, the Rev. Dr. Godfrey, late President of Queen's College, Cambridge, an early and attached friend to the objects of this Society.

They have also to mourn the removal by death of two other valued friends of the Society;—the one, Charles Elliott, Esq., a Member of its Committee from the first, and for many years afterward; the other, Thomas Bainbridge, Esq., an efficient Member of the Committee for twenty-seven years, and who has, by the munificent bequest of 1000*l.* Three per Cents, confirmed the assurance of his attachment to the labours of the Society.

PATRONAGE.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Chichester has accepted the office of one of the Vice Patrons of the Society; and the Rev. Dr. Symonds, Warden of Wadham College, Oxford, that of one of the Vice Presidents.

APPOINTMENT OF THE REV. W. JOWETT AS CLERICAL SECRETARY.

According to the arrangement proposed in the Report for 1832, the Rev. William Jowett has been appointed Clerical Secretary, in the room of the Rev. Thomas Woodrooffe; on whose retirement the Committee recorded the strong sense which they entertain of the advantages derived by the Society from his active services, in that situation, during a period of seven years.

FUNDS.

In turning to this topic, the Committee have thankfully to acknowledge a large increase of the Society's Income. The Receipts on the General Account for the year ending March 31, 1832, were 40,751*l.* 18*s.*—those for the year ending the 31st of March last were 48,602*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.*—showing an increase in the year just closed to the amount of 7850*l.* 8*s.* 7*d.* In this sum, however, are included about 1000*l.* of Foreign Contributions, not heretofore introduced into the Balance Sheet; about 500*l.* more than the usual proportion of Remittances from the Hibernian Auxiliary within the year; and one Donation of 500*l.*, beside several smaller ones, which swell the head of Benefactions considerably beyond the usual amount. The requisite deductions on these grounds amount, the Committee estimate, to about 2000*l.*; which, deducted from the above-mentioned total, would leave the Receipts of the year about 46,600*l.* This satisfactory view of the Society's Finances is further illustrated by a reference to the amount received through Associations, which was, last year, 41,087*l.* 9*s.* 7*d.*; exceeding that under the same head for the year immediately preceding, by 6272*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.* The Committee therefore trust that they are warranted in inferring that a deepening interest is taken, by the Members at large, in the great cause, to the advancement of which the labours of the Society are directed; and that, in the midst of the peculiar difficulties and trials of the days in which they live, a growing zeal is felt, and increased exertions are making by the members of the National Church to impart the Gospel of Christ to the perishing Heathen.

The Committee recognise in the present financial situation of the Society renewed obligations to render thanks to the Father of Mercies, whose is the earth and the fulness thereof, and whose gracious interpositions to sustain and advance the operations of the Society have been so frequently experienced;—and also renewed obligations to a wise and faithful appropriation of what is given, and to prayer for the continuance of the blessing of God on the whole of the Society's proceedings.

There has also been received 718*l.* 8*s.* 10*d.* on account of the Disabled Missionaries' Fund; and 29*l.* 6*s.* on account of the Building Fund;—making the Total of the year's Receipts, 49,350*l.* 1*s.* 5*d.*

The expenditure of the last year was 43,162*l.* 6*s.* 2*d.*; that of the preceding year, 47,173*l.* 3*s.* 5*d.* In the year 1831--1832, the expenditure was more than the average amount: in the last, 1832--1833, it was less. The cost of the two years was 90,335*l.* 9*s.* 7*d.*, and gives an average amount, for each year, of 45,167*l.* 14*s.* 9½*d.*; which may be considered as exhibiting a near approximation to the sum requisite to maintain the existing establishments of the Society, at home and abroad, in a state of efficiency.

MISSIONARIES AND STUDENTS.

DECEASE OR RETURN OF MISSIONARIES.

It has pleased God to remove by death three Individuals in the course of the year:—Mr. John Rogers, a Catechist, who died at Sierra Leone on the 12th of May 1832; Mrs. Blackman, the valued wife of the Rev. C. Blackman, of Madras, who died on the 1st of July 1831, after giving birth to a little girl; and Mr. Thomas Bates, another Catechist in Sierra Leone, who died January 25th last.

The Rev. John Hartley set out, with Mrs. Hartley, on his return to Greece, by way of the Continent, on the 6th of June last: in consequence, however, of the illness of Mrs. Hartley, they proceeded no further than Geneva, where they at present remain.

The Rev. William Krusé, with Mrs. Krusé, visited Elberfeld in Prussia, on account of ill health. Mr. Krusé came to London for a short time in September, at the suggestion of the Committee; and having again joined Mrs. Krusé, they proceeded on their return to Caïro, and reached Alexandria on the 7th of February last. The Rev. J. R. T. Lieder arrived at that place, on his return to Caïro, in October last.

Mr. A. B. Duckham, the Society's Printer at Madras, was obliged to leave India on account of his health: he arrived in London on the 24th of last May, and, in consequence of a return of his illness, has since relinquished his connexion with the Society.

The Rev. William Mitchell, with Mrs. Mitchell, to whom he had been recently married, arrived at Bombay about the beginning of July last.

The Rev. C. L. F. Haensel is now in London, having arrived on the 4th instant.

The Rev. Messrs. Bailey, Bärenbruck, and Gerber, are still detained from their Stations on account of ill health.

DEPARTURES AND ARRIVALS OF MISSIONARIES.

Since the last Report, various Labourers have been sent out to the Missions of the Society; and others, who left England during the preceding year, have reached their destinations; as follows:—

West-Africa Mission—The Rev. Messrs. George Adam Kissling and James Frederick Schön, Messrs. Thomas Bates and Edward Gillespie, with Mrs. Kissling, embarked for Sierra Leone on the 12th of October last, to accompany the Rev. John Raban on his return thither. They arrived in the Colony on the 6th of December.

Mediterranean Mission—The Rev. Charles William Isenberg left England on the 17th of July last, to visit the Continent, previously to his departure for Egypt, and finally for Abyssinia.

North-India Mission—The Rev. Messrs. John Hoerberlin, John Charles Gottlob Knorpp, Charles Benjamin Leupolt, and John Theophilus Linke, sailed from Portsmouth on the 20th of June, for Calcutta, where they arrived on the 4th of November. The Rev. William Morse reached Calcutta on the 18th of June last.

South-India Mission—The Rev. Joseph Peet, and Mr. Peter Batchelor, a Printer, set sail for Madras on the 18th of January last; and on the 26th of the same month the Rev. George Pettitt embarked for the same place. Mrs. Pettitt, who was compelled to stay behind at Portsmouth, in consequence of very severe sickness, afterward sailed on the 21st of April, with the Rev. John Tucker and Henry Snashall. The Rev. John James Müller arrived at Palamcottah, his appointed Station, on the 19th of January 1832; and the Rev. Peter Fjellstedt and Mrs. Fjellstedt reached the same place on the 11th of the following month.

Australasia Mission—The Rev. William Watson and Mrs. Watson arrived at Sydney on the 1st of May 1832. Mr. John Alexander Wilson and Mrs. Wilson left London for New Zealand on the 21st of September; and Mr. John Morgan, destined for the same place, embarked at Liverpool on the 6th of November. Mr. Joseph Matthews reached New Zealand on the 26th of March, 1832.

West-Indies Mission—Mr. Thomas Youd embarked on the 21st of October for British Guiana, and reached his Station at Bartica Point on the 23d of December.

ORDINATION OF MISSIONARIES.

Four of the Society's Students—Messrs. William John Woodcock, John Michael Lechler, John Francis Müller, and James Günther—have been admitted by the Bishop of London to Deacon's Orders during the year; and four—the Rev. Messrs. Charles William Isenberg, James Frederick Schön, George Pettitt, and Joseph Peet, to Priest's Orders.

INSTITUTION AT ISLINGTON.

At the last Anniversary there were in the Institution Nineteen Students: eight have been received in the course of the year. Of these, eleven have quitted the Institution for their respective scenes of labour, two have left in ill health, one has been removed, and thirteen now remain. At the meeting of the Committee of Visitors on the 12th inst. the Annual Report of the state of the Institution, drawn up by the Principal at the request of that Committee, was laid before them; and they had the satisfaction to learn that he entertained a favourable opinion of the progress of the Students, both in their studies and piety. The testimony of the Bishop of London had been again given to the industry and theological attainments of the Students presented to his Lordship as candidates for Holy Orders. While the Principal expresses his thankfulness to God for the measure of His grace and blessing which had rested on the Institution, he implores the prayers of the Members of the Society, that a more fervent spirit of Missionary zeal being shed abroad by the Holy Ghost, the number of Students may be increased; and that those who are still in the Institution, and those who have gone forth to their Stations, may be patterns to believers and unbelievers, of charity, faith, purity, patience, and meekness.

One Catechist has proceeded to Sierra Leone, two to New Zealand, and one Catechist and a Printer to Madras, who did not pass through the Institution: so that Nine Clergymen, and Seven Laymen, of whom three were married, making a total of Nineteen Individuals, have been sent forth within the year.

The Total Number actually engaged direct by this Society, beside Native Agents under the Offices of Missionary and Catechist, is about 110.

MISSIONS.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION:

INSTITUTION AT FOURAH BAY.

THE Institution at Fourah Bay has been under the superintendence of the Rev. C. L. F. Haensel. The general progress of the Scholars in their studies is satisfactory; but of their spiritual state Mr. Haensel complains:—

I find, that at the very time when I most anxiously begin to look for growth in grace, they become fond of fine clothes, conceited, and stubborn; and regard me as an enemy, because I discourage profession unattended by corresponding practice.

After having faithfully stated the dark side, Mr. Haensel is enabled to give a more pleasing account of three other Youths. One of them has manifested a deep anxiety for the salvation of his soul; and it was discovered that he and three others were in the habit of holding a little Devotional Meeting on some evenings in the week, after school-hours.

The Stations in this Colony are at present arranged under two Divisions—the River District, and the Mountain District.

RIVER DISTRICT.

This district has been principally under the charge of the Rev. G. W. E. Metzger, and Mr. W. Young. Mr. Metzger states:—

The attendants on Divine Service continue as numerous as ever: the Chapel, which has lately been shingled by the people at their own expense, is too small to contain all who wish to attend on a Sunday Forenoon. The number of the Communicants has not diminished since my return: when some were excluded, others were added. There is also an increasing desire amongst the Adults to learn to read the Word of Life; and they manifest, more generally than some years ago, an earnest wish for the instruction of their Children. The Communicants continue to meet, in small parties, on five different evenings, for mutual edification, and for familiar instruction.

Of Wellington, he says—

I am again happy to inform you, that, from all appearance, the work of the Lord is still carried on among my people. The House of God is far too small for the number that wish to attend Divine Service on Sunday Forenoons: many remain out of doors.

Mr. Young says—

Under all our discouragements, a work of grace is going on in the hearts of a few: others are as much opposed to the light of the Gospel, which is feebly shining in this dark place. Hundreds are yet given up to idolatry.

He further adds, indicative of this inveterate propensity of the natives to idolatry—

After having searched into the secret ways of the people, I find that these sins are so familiar to them, that they call these abominable ways of their fathers only their “country fashion.” Some of the Members of the Church have been living, in a measure, in a state of idolatry, trusting in their greegrees (charms), which they have concealed under their clothes; and I believe some have come to the Table of our Lord with this refuge of lies hanging about their body. When I speak to some of the people about casting them away, or attempt to take them, it is like plucking out a right eye.

Four Heathens, Liberated Africans, are stated to have renounced idolatry, namely three men and one woman. An account of the manner in which they did this, and the persecution which they suffered from their countrymen, is given in the January Number of the Church Missionary Record, p. 5.

MOUNTAIN DISTRICT.

This has been principally superintended by the Rev. W. K. Betts and Mr. Weeks.—Mr. Betts makes the following general observation:—

I think the desire for knowledge is on the increase among all classes; many are diligently learning to read; and the public instruction of the Sunday is better understood than formerly. In this we have much encouragement to hope that the profession of those who now come forward as Candidates will be founded on more extensive acquaintance with the doctrines and requirements of the Scriptures, than in time past.

Mr. Weeks gives the following account of the performance of Divine Service at Gloucester:—

Divine Service has been performed, Morning and Evening, on Sundays. The attendance in the morning has probably averaged 350; but in the evening less than half of that number have been present. This is a circumstance which I have noticed with regret, as it bespeaks a sad indifference to the Word and Worship of God, when the people think it too much to frequent His House twice on the Sabbath.

He further states, in the following terms, the laborious office in which he had been occupied while at Regent, in the examination of Communicants:—

It has really been up-hill work this Quarter: indeed I may truly say, that, since my return to Regent from Hastings, I have been an assistant-pruner; for we have been called to the very painful duty of lopping off so many decayed and withered branches, as almost to discourage me: some of them appeared lively, and shot forth blossom, and bade fair for yielding good fruit. I can now speak from experience, that to be engaged in the necessary work of pruning, especially to so great an extent and in so short a time as we have been called to, is, perhaps, of all Missionary work, the most painful and trying.

Of the Girls' School, Mr. Weeks reports—

Mrs. Weeks has 68 Girls employed in the sewing department: 12 of them may be considered Young Women, who remain in the school merely because they have no employment when at home: their general deportment is good; yet no decided marks of piety can be traced.

The Rev. J. Raban has again returned to Sierra Leone, after having printed another small Tract in this country, containing specimens of one of the Native Dialects. He observes, in reference to this undertaking—

The collection of new words, which I have thus been able to make, is very small; but I do not undervalue the opportunities afforded, by intercourse with different individuals of the Eyc or Yoruba Country, to ascertain the construction of sentences, and the general nature of the language there spoken, as well as to discover the errors which may have found their way into the Printed Vocabulary. The importance of the ultimate object in view—that of putting all the treasures of Revelation into the hands of the Natives, in their own tongue—is greater than I can express.

In closing this brief review of the Society's operations in West Africa during the past year, the Committee would advert, generally, to the advantages which that Colony has derived from the Society's labours during a period of thirty years. One benefit arising from the existence of the Mission there has been, that the minds of the people at large, and especially the feelings of the Members of this Society, have been fixed immoveably upon this consideration—that the soul of the African is as precious in the sight of God as the soul of any other human being; all having been alike purchased with the price of the blood of the Lamb of God, our Adorable Redeemer.

The work of this Society has been one continued and loud Appeal to the mercifulness of Christians in this nation: nor has the voice of pity ever been silenced, notwithstanding the great sacrifice of valuable lives which has been incurred in the progress of our labours. The Committee feel, moreover, that they are justified in using the strong term PROGRESS, when speaking of the character of the Society's exertions in Sierra Leone. In a population of twenty-one thousand Liberated Africans, of whom about twelve thousand come more peculiarly under the charge of our Missionaries, they can point out this result—that about three thousand are constant attendants on Public Worship; three thousand Children and Adults are under Education; and there are 694 Communicants under Christian Discipline. It is not a time, therefore, to be disheartened, but to persevere; under the sure persuasion, that the Church of Christ, once firmly planted on this Western Coast, shall break forth Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, till the Tribes of Africa acknowledge Him as Lord, who is above all, and through all, and in us all.*

MEDITERRANEAN MISSION.

MALTA.

SINCE the Last Report, the Rev. C. F. Schlienx has been enabled, by the recovery of his health, to resume his labours at Malta, where he is engaged in superintending the Translation and Printing of various useful Books, chiefly in the Arabic Language. The want of a good Arabic Translator had long been felt by Mr. Schlienx. This want has at length been supplied by Isa, of Bagdad, a young man from Mesopotamia, who had been with the Rev. W. Krusé in Egypt. Isa arrived in Malta on the 20th of March last, and has hitherto given satisfaction by his diligence and good conduct.

* For further particulars relative to the state of the West-Africa Mission, see Church Missionary Record for 1832, pp. 217—223; and 1833, pp. 1—6.

Mr. Brenner also continues to be engaged partly in the literary labours of the Press, and partly in superintending the secular details, of not the Malta Station only, but in a great degree of the whole of the Stations of the Mediterranean Mission. The business of the Printing and Binding Department is conducted by Mr. Weiss.

The Number of Books and Tracts issued in the Countries around the Mediterranean, from the Press at Malta, during the year 1832, was as follows:—

	Copies.
Italian	62
Greek	23,393
Arabic	12,368
Total	35,823

The issues in the year 1831 had been rather more than 12,000. During the past year, therefore, they have been nearly thrice that number.

GREECE.

The Schools at Syra have, for a period of about six years, been under the care of this Society's Missionaries; and may be considered as one of the sources of the best of blessings to that reviving country. The Rev. F. Hildner has, for five years, been settled there, and has not fewer than from 300 to 350 Scholars under his superintendence. The Religious Instruction given by him is purely Scriptural; and to this is added Teaching in various branches of useful science. He has repeatedly received the warmest testimonies of approbation and gratitude from the Magistrates, and other persons best able to form, on the spot, a true estimate of the value and acceptableness of his labours†.

From recent accounts, it appears that Mr. Hildner's labours had been seriously interrupted by the machinations of certain Roman-Catholic Ecclesiastics; but his last communication, dated January 17th, states—"The Schools are now in their former order and condition."

The Infant-School System had so greatly succeeded, that it has been necessary to enlarge that part of their establishments. Mr. Hildner removed the Infant School into a new Building on the 1st of November; and on that occasion assembled the Children of the different Schools in one of the largest rooms. Though it was at a Feast-time, Mr. Hildner had the satisfaction of meeting 220 Children; and his spirits were much cheered, as he offered the tribute of gratitude for the goodness of God; and the building was dedicated, in the presence of the Children, to His Service.

ASIA MINOR.

The Rev. J. A. Jetter and Mrs. Jetter having been for the past year at Smyrna, have prosecuted their Missionary work, in the midst of interruptions from the Plague and Cholera on the one hand, and on the other from opposition made by persons of some influence. Notwithstanding these hindrances, the work of the Lord has prospered in their hands.

At Boujah, a village in the neighbourhood of Smyrna, Mr. Jetter had also introduced Schools. This is the more desirable, as it is a place of much resort, during the heat of summer, and during the seasons of Plague or Cholera.

On the review of his Missionary field in the winter before last, Mr. Jetter, referring to his own labours and those of others, makes the following brief, but very cheering observation :—

The Gospel has been faithfully preached all this winter in Smyrna; and that in different languages. Smyrna presents a very large field for Missionary operations.

Mrs. Jetter was further projecting to form a School for Turkish Girls, and with some prospect of encouragement.

In connexion with Mr. Benj. Barker of Smyrna, Mr. Jetter commenced a Bible-Class Meeting; a few Greeks assembling at a certain room, twice a week, when the Scriptures were read and expounded to them. Mr. Jetter thus reports respecting these Meetings, in his Letter of April 25 :—

Our Bible Meetings have, with little interruption, been regularly carried on hitherto. They give me great delight, and afford me the best opportunity of practising in the Greek Language. We have, occasionally, not only Greeks, but also Jews, and an Armenian. The baptized Jews, John Evangelist and Baptist, who stay with the Rev. W. B. Lewis, likewise attend. These men have of late commenced a Bible Meeting among themselves, every Sunday Morning. They are all of them among those that have been benefited by our dear friend, the Rev. J. Hartley.

In conjunction with several Ladies of other Missionary Societies, or resident in Smyrna, Mrs. Jetter has been the means of establishing a "Poor Society" in the Village of Boujah; and, subsequently, a similar one in Smyrna. Of that in Boujah, Mr. Jetter writes, under date of Nov. 3, 1831—

Our little "Poor Society" is in activity. Eighty persons, mostly school girls, and some widows, and other helpless creatures, have already been provided with common gowns. By this means our Scholars all look pretty clean, and decently dressed. Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Jetter have hitherto had the sole management of it. They have been, and are still, engaged in giving medicine, &c., and visiting the sick.

Mrs. Jetter gratefully acknowledges the supplies for the Girls' School forwarded to her by Ladies at Islington and Newcastle. She thus particularizes the articles that are most suitable :—

Common work-bags, furnished with a thimble, scissors, bodkin, sewing and marking cotton, emery cushion, &c., will be very acceptable ; also little pieces of print for patchwork, knitting-needles, and stocking cotton, which is not to be had in Smyrna. I hope a few of my scholars will soon be able to gain a little by their work. Little bits of Irish linen would be useful, to teach stitching button-holes, &c.

EGYPT.

Of the Society's Missionaries in Egypt, two have visited England during the past year, their health and domestic circumstances appearing to the Committee to justify this intermission of their labours after a service of nearly six years. From their Letters, written partly in Egypt, and partly in this country, the Committee are enabled to present a clear view of the mode and success of their Missionary exertions.* To these are added some further remarks by the third of the Missionaries in Egypt, the Rev. T. Müller.

In reference to the character of the Mahomedan Inhabitants of Egypt, who form by far the largest proportion of the population, Mr. Lieder, in a document of considerable length and much value, has the following remark :—

But the greatest hindrance is, that a man has to die if he change his religion. Many a Mahomedan looks therefore upon a Missionary who comes to him to call his religion in question, as upon a man who aims at his life ; and he is therefore anxious to avoid any opportunity, by which he might be induced to doubt the truth of his religion.

And further—

There are in the system of the Mahomedan Religion itself, great obstacles ; as it excludes altogether the necessity of a Saviour. Almost all other nations have, according to their religious principles, sacrifices by which to reconcile themselves to their offended Deity, and by it acknowledge in some degree the want of a Saviour ; but the Mahomedan has nothing to do with an offended, holy, and righteous God. The Mahomedan, also, has nothing to do with a new birth, and the crucifying of the old man : the Korân allows whatever may please the carnal-minded man ; and if he make his prayers at the appointed times, give alms, and be kind to women and slaves, he will enjoy the pleasures of the Paradise of his Prophet in full measure.

The labours of our Missionaries have consequently been chiefly among the professing, but deeply-benighted, Christians in Egypt. On their mode of teaching among these Native Christians Mr. Lieder remarks—

* The communications of the Rev. Messrs. Krusé and Lieder relative to the state of Egypt will be found in the Church Missionary Record for 1832, pp. 103—114, 275—277.

Congregational preaching, as practised in Europe, is not practicable among the Oriental Christians. The trial has been made by us, for a long time, without success; as they do not venture to come because of their priests, for fear of excommunication. We therefore preached the Gospel to those who visited us in our own houses, by religious conversation; and from house to house, by keeping up religious intercourse with them. The most respectable part of them, and particularly their families, were quite out of our sphere for a long time, as it is only possible for their priests and physicians to enter into their domestic circles. To remove this obstacle, one of us applied himself to the study of medicine; by the practice of which the doors were opened to religious intercourse with families; in which he fully succeeded. A wide door is now opened for the preaching of the Gospel from house to house; and the former prejudices of many people against us and our mission, instilled by their priests, are more and more removed, and Scriptural Knowledge diffused among them.

The Arabic Service had, moreover, been changed for a more familiar kind of Scriptural Exposition, on grounds which are thus stated by Mr. Krusé:—

The Arabic Service was never well attended; sometimes only by a few who came from mere curiosity; and some, if they had been willing to come, could not venture it, on account of the Priests. For this reason I some time ago converted my Arabic Preaching into a kind of Catechetical Exercise, causing the elder boys to read, in succession, some verses out of the New Testament, and catechizing them upon what each read. When adults were present, I pursued the same course, making such remarks as might be profitable. Thus I read on Sundays the whole Gospel of St. Luke, and explained it; sometimes a whole chapter at once; sometimes only half a chapter, or a smaller portion.

By persevering efforts in educating the Youth of Egypt, the Missionaries appear likely to obtain a firm hold upon the affections of the people. It is stated—

The object of our School at Cairo, in which usually between 40 and 55 children are instructed, was to give poor children the opportunity of learning to read the Word of God, and to instruct them in the way of salvation: but, more especially, to train up in it promising children for Schoolmasters; in order that, by them, true Christian Schools might be organized in different parts of Egypt; as the whole country is destitute of schools of this kind.

Mr. Müller states—

Some of the elder Boys find that the doctrine of their Church (the Coptic) does not agree with what they read in the Bible. One of them told me that he reads every evening to his parents and neighbours out of the Gospel.

It is a pleasing circumstance, that the children connected with this School are not compelled, as other children are, to labour in the Pacha's manufactories. Another encouraging feature is, that Mahomedan prejudices appear to be on the decline ; three Mahomedan Boys having been admitted to the School.

The Missionaries, with the sanction of the Committee, are about to open a School, wherein twenty Boys are to be boarded and educated.

Of the success attending this branch of their labours, Mr. Krusé writes—

In the School, I made the Boys read, every Saturday, alternately, a chapter of St. Matthew: then I explained it, and questioned them upon what was read, and was often much gratified with their answers. The smaller boys commit to memory Watts's Catechism, and recite on Saturday what they learn during the week; but the bigger boys I make learn, every week, about six or more verses from the Scriptures which relate to the questions and tenets of the Catechism of Krummacher. My most happy hours were spent with the boys; and they themselves rejoiced in it, and were very attentive and eager to hear me speak to them upon Religion; and there was seldom one who could not recite all his verses.

With respect to Female Education, which is comparatively a new thing in Egypt, the Missionaries have written—

As to the Girls' School, we have, for a few months past, had much encouragement. Many mothers, who dared not formerly to do so, now bring their Girls, urgently begging us to instruct them.

The Rev. T. Müller was diligently occupied in the labours of the Mission at the latest advices, which come down to October the 10th.

Of the Mission in general, he writes—

There is at present a great stir among the Copts in Upper Egypt. The seed sown appears to bud.

The utility of the Press at Malta is rendered very manifest, from the following remark of our Missionaries.

The Holy Scriptures, and Tracts, and Pious Books, issuing from the Society's Press at Malta, which have been largely diffused, are now read by thousands. Some of them think more seriously about the salvation of their souls, and how to escape the wrath to come: others seek to correct their manners, and to put aside those bad customs which are common in Egypt, as, swearing, lying, hypocrisy, &c.

The Missionaries add—

The Jews apply to us, very often, for the Holy Scriptures. To the Europeans we preached, every Sunday, in English and German; and our labours, particularly among the Germans, have not been in vain.

ABYSSINIA.

At the date of the latest advices, the Rev. S. Gobat, the Society's Missionary to Abyssinia, had safely arrived at Cairo. The account which Mr. Gobat gives of the plundering and wars which had been taking place in the interior is truly deplorable: of the province adjacent to the Red Sea, he adds—

Tigré has not been in a better condition during this last year; for, as soon as the death of Sebagadis was known, all the Chiefs divided among themselves, each of them pretending to the government of Tigré. They have been at war with each other during a year; several districts have been plundered, and the houses burnt up. Every traveller must go his way naked, or he is robbed of all his clothes, whenever he passes from one district to another. But in the midst of this confusion, the children of Sebagadis have been always making progress under the eldest now living, Wolda Michael; and had not one of them rebelled several times, they would at present have had the whole of Tigré under them. Now the decisive moment has arrived for Wolda Michael; for he has no other enemies of importance than those of Adowah and the neighbourhood. He is now at Hassai, about nine miles from Adowah; and at this moment the intelligence has arrived here, that two or three of the greatest Chiefs have surrendered themselves to Wolda Michael, and that some others are preparing for their departure from Tigré to Samen. Thus it appears that Wolda Michael will be the first, for many generations, who succeeds his father in the government of Tigré: he was known, before his father's death, as almost a single example in this country for not changing his word: and it is perhaps to this quality alone that he is indebted for his success; for in the beginning he had scarcely any means. He has hitherto been my friend, and considers me almost as a father; though he has not the tender feelings of his father. It is he alone who has prevented me from being plundered several times; for almost all the Abyssinians are robbers, when they have nothing to fear.*

The Committee quit this notice of the operations of the Society in the Mediterranean with one remark upon the present eventful state of Public Affairs generally in the Levant. Since the period when the Society entered on this branch of its labours, now more than seventeen years ago, impediments which stood in the way of the pure Gospel have been removed, and increasing facilities have been afforded in those regions to teach and to preach Jesus Christ. There never was a time when, on the whole, such fair and ample prospects were unfolded as now gladden the eye of the Missionary. Whatever may be the result of the present convulsions in the Turkish Empire, it is certain that thus far they have opened new ground for Christians to occupy. While of many a Conqueror it may in Scripture language be said, that in his heart HE meaneth not so; still, in the secret counsels of the Most High, such men are but instruments made to subserve the gracious and wise designs of Christ, the King of the whole earth. Already a sentiment in favour of Toleration has been increasingly felt even in Papal and Mahomedan Countries; and should this gain ground, and become purified and strengthened by the influence of genuine Christian Principle, then may we hope speedily to see the terrors of the triple crown utterly vanish, the sword of the Mahomedan impostor snapped in two, the ancient people of God acknowledging their true Messiah, and all nations flowing together to swell the train of the Divine Redeemer. His Holy Word our Missionaries are now preaching in the very regions where it first sounded forth: they are actually on the field: upon us, therefore, they lay an irresistible claim for our support, our sympathy, and our prayers*.

INDIA.

THE Committee enter upon the Report of their labours in India with a grateful acknowledgment of the Divine Goodness, for the safe arrival at those shores of their revered and valued friend, the Lord Bishop of Calcutta. Four of the Society's Missionaries had the advantage of accompanying his Lordship in the ship to Calcutta. On their voyage, they found in him truly a friend, counsellor, and spiritual father, one apt to teach; for the Bishop, in addition to his other duties, voluntarily gave them, on the voyage, a Series of Lectures on the First Epistle to Timothy; thus seasoning their minds with Missionary views before they entered upon the field of labour†.

In reference to the Tax on Pilgrims, which is collected by Government in several Heathen Temples in India, the Committee have, participating in the general feeling of their fellow-Christians, addressed a Memorial on that subject to the Court of Directors. They venture to believe that the Blessing of God will, in this respect, eventually crown the wishes of the Christian Public at home, as well as the labours of the Society's Missionaries abroad.

The Committee have peculiar satisfaction in recording the fact, of which frequent notice occurs in the Journals of the Society's Missionaries, that they receive much assistance from pious and benevolent Europeans resident in India. These do, in reality, often derive spiritual advantages from the Missionaries; but it is pleasing to observe, that they give this proof of it, by being themselves willing and desirous to patronise and promote Missionary Labours.

* The Stations of the Mediterranean Mission are fully reported in the Church Missionary Record for 1832, pp. 144—149, 268—277; and 1833, pp. 7—9.

† The affectionate counsels which the Bishop of Calcutta addressed to the various Missionaries before him, when his Lordship took leave of the Committee, will be found briefly stated in the Church Missionary Record for 1832, p. 137.

CALCUTTA AND NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

CALCUTTA.

THE Rev. T. Sandys is appointed to the Calcutta Station. He has been principally occupied in the study of Bengalee, the duties of the Chapel, visiting the Village Stations in the neighbourhood of Calcutta, and in superintending Native Schools.

In his ministrations on the Sunday, he has many native hearers. He relates, under date of October 2, that he had preached a Sacramental Sermon, upon the words—I sat down under His shadow with great delight, and His fruit was sweet to my taste. He adds—

Nearly 60 Christians and Candidates were present, and some Heathens. After Sermon, administered the Lord's Supper to our Communicants; when the three newly-baptized persons were admitted.

Thirty-five partook of the emblems; 33 of whom were Native Christians, or, in other words, were once Idolaters.

Mr. Sandys, in a Letter, dated Aug. 27, 1832, states—

“During the time we have been living amongst the Heathen, our Heavenly Father has vouchsafed us many tokens of His care and love. His blessing has rested upon our feeble endeavours to promote a knowledge of the Saviour's grace among the Heathen. You will have learned from the last Report, that, during the past year, thirty persons were received into the Church in Calcutta; four at Dumdum; and four at Raspunge, in connexion with our Society alone. Since the drawing-up of that Report (May), ten individuals have been baptized in our Mission Chapel: two of these were the Converts of our excellent Archdeacon, and were baptized by him on Wednesday the 15th inst.; when our Chapel was crowded with Native Christians and Heathens. Yesterday, at the Mission Church, the Rev. T. Dealtry baptized a very respectable and intelligent young Hindoo, of whom the best hopes are entertained: he was formerly a Student in the Hindoo College, and long ago renounced idolatry. A great number of Gentlemen and Ladies of the first respectability were present to witness the baptism, and were much interested. Baboo Krishna Mohana Banerjea, the Editor of the Inquirer Newspaper, long an intimate friend of the young man who was baptized, was present all the time of the Service, and apparently deeply interested. Hopes are indulged of his being, ere long, brought to a decision in Religion: he has long opposed idol-worship; but fears are entertained that he had taken up Socinian notions. There has lately appeared in him a change for the better; produced, under the blessing of God, by the serious explanations of Scripture, and affectionate exhortations of Major P. After one of those interviews to which I here allude, he expressed himself in these words: ‘If this be the meaning of those passages, then Socinianism must fall.’ You will, I am sure, be glad to hear that I have now ten Candidates for Baptism, to whom I am communicating instruction, almost daily, preparatory to the Holy Ordinance.”

“Our work is fast increasing upon our hands on all sides; and it is our earnest desire that the number of those who devote themselves to God for it may be abundantly increased. Indeed, it appears to me, that truly-devoted Labourers are now the great desideratum. The seed of Divine Truth has been very extensively sown; but there is not a sufficient number of Labourers to attend to it, to prevent the wild beasts and birds of prey devouring it up."

It appears, also, that the labours of the venerable Arch-deacon Corrie continue to be blest to Mahomedans. The Arch-deacon, notwithstanding the numerous duties which devolve upon him, continues to give his attention to the instruction of the Natives.

In reference to the labours of the Press at Calcutta, it is stated—

To supply the several Stations of the Committee with suitable Tracts, the Press has been constantly at work. Besides Reports, &c. in English, there have been issued, in Bengalee, 27,000 Tracts on six different subjects; in Hinduwee, 17,000; in Hinduwee, Kythee Character, 5000; and in Oordoo, 2500: making a total of 51,500 Tracts in different dialects.

BURDWAN AND CULNA.

In these places, the Rev. W. J. Deerr and the Rev. J. J. Weitbrecht are labouring. Of the Schools, which they had been instrumental in establishing, they report favourably. At Krishnaghur, they state—

We have a School filled with Girls of the highest castes and most respectable Hindoo Families; a sure sign that the old prejudices of this people are wearing off, when the highest classes of people in a large town think it important and advantageous for their daughters to receive instruction.

Bengalee Schools like ours, where the plain and powerful truths of the Word of God are taught and explained, are undoubtedly among the most effective means of reforming the hearts and minds of the rising Hindoo generation. The fruits of our endeavours, in this branch of Missionary labour, are growing up slowly; but on that account they are the better.

Mr. Deerr, having baptized three persons at Culna, one of them being a young Brahmin of good family, observes—

In consequence of this conversion, the Brahmins of the neighbourhood became astonished and confounded. Their former language was always, "Do any of the Rulers believe in Him?" Now, since they see that the Word of God is powerful enough to turn even the hearts of Brahmins, they begin to cry out, "What will, at last, become of us!"

These Missionaries give also the following account of the terrible effects of Hindoo Superstition:—

In a village two miles from our premises, there is a Car of Juggernaut. Three weeks ago, the Hindoos celebrated Juggernaut's Festival, and dragged the car about in triumph. In the evening, we heard that three men were killed under the car: whether they were thrown under the wheels by the pressure of the crowd, or whether they laid themselves down willingly, we could not ascertain: the first case seems probable. When the crowd saw the victims lying in their blood, they became frightened, and all of them took to flight. The following morning I drove to the place with Mr. Deerr. The corpses were still lying on the spot where the wheels had crushed them: the people seemed quite unconcerned about the fatal event: a fire was kindled at the side of each body, which presented a frightful sight. The wheels had crushed the thigh of one man, and snapped in two the knee of a fine boy of fifteen years old, and another wheel went over his head. The widow of one of the deceased was sitting at his side in deep silence, staring at the corpse. The people seemed half ashamed; and Mr. Deerr took occasion, from this event, to show them their miserable state, and to call them to believe in the Living God.

In consideration of the importance of this Station, the Committee have augmented the number of Missionaries appointed to it.

GORRUCKPORE.

Several Missionary journeys have been made by the Rev. M. Wilkinson and the Rev. W. Smith. The following is from a Report received from the Gorruckpore Church Missionary Association:—

In consequence of the state of Mr. Wilkinson's health, he has been a good deal employed in the work of translating Expositions of the Scriptures, &c. He has ready for the Press, Commentaries on our Lord's Sermon on the Mount, and on the Parables and Miracles of the New Testament; also, Discourses on the Decalogue; several others on the principal Doctrines of the Holy Scriptures, forming a Comment on Bishop Gastrel's Christian Institutes; and Lectures on Scripture Doctrines, delivered at various times in the course of Ministerial Instruction, a compendious Tract, showing that Christianity is the only true Religion in the world. These were translated before, and have been revised and prepared for the Press during the past year. A Translation of Andrew Fuller's Commentary on the Book of Genesis has also been completed; and a Digest of Scott and Bishop Horne on the Psalms is in progress.

Besides Daily Public Instruction among the Heathen, there have been Daily Service among the Native Christians and two full Services on the Sunday. One English Service has also been regularly performed.

BUXAR.

At this Station, Mr. J. Macleod, besides superintending the Schools, reads Prayers and a Sermon in English to the European Invalids and others on Sunday Mornings, and in Hindoostanee in the Afternoon to the Native Congregation, and has a Hindoostanee Service also in the week. He also makes occasional journeys into the neighbourhood, to converse with the Natives, and to distribute Tracts.

BENARES.

This Station the Committee have been exceedingly desirous to reinforce, and they have consequently appointed two additional Missionaries to it*.

CHUNAR.

The Rev. William Bowley at this Station has given copious journals of his Ministerial labours, which have appeared at various times in the Record. Some idea may be formed of his Missionary journeys, from the following account which he gives of one day, when he was engaged in disputations at the Great Fair of Gooreeshunkur:—

Feb. 29, 1832—Early this morning crowds poured into the fair from various directions; and about 9 A.M. group after group, of as many as my tent could contain, began to throng it, chiefly of the learned; whilst both entrances, as well as round about, were choked with crowds, pressing in, out of curiosity—the generality to have a sight of a Sahib (gentleman), who, they say, is quite a novelty in these parts. Thus was the day spent, from 9 A.M. till 6 P.M., in reading Address after Address, answering question after question, and distributing single Gospels and Tracts in Kythee and Nagree; though, of the Nagree, not one tenth was given away. The generality read nothing but the Kythee Character. Gave away three copies of the Hindoostanee Testament, to a Native Collector, a Police Officer, and another respectable man. We have thus distributed but four copies of this Testament since we left Chunar; and but one copy of the Hinduwee Complete Testament, to a respectable man, who, I found, made good use of a Hinduwee Catechism, which he said he had received from me, four years since, at Mirzapore: he said it was his constant companion. Here is one pleasing testimony, that all is not lost that is distributed at these fairs; and it also shows how far our books are carried. This proved a most delightful day, and amply paid us for all the discouragements we have met with since we came out.

In a Letter, dated April 25, 1831, Mr. Bowley states, that an Asylum for Female Orphans and the Daughters of Converts had then been about eighteen months in existence, and contained nine inmates. New and convenient Premises have been built for this purpose. The Girls are taught to read both in the Persian and Nagree Character, also needle-work, and marking. They spin, grind their own wheat, cook their own food, &c., under the immediate eye of a matron. Their dress is purely native. A Boys' Asylum, for Orphans and the Sons of Converts, had been established about six months.

ALLAHABAD.

It appears from the Calcutta Report, that David Batavia, a Native Catechist, continues to make himself useful, under the direction of a friend at this Station; but no detailed accounts have been forwarded to the Committee.

* The Rev. H. C. Krückeberg has communicated from this Station a valuable account of the principal objections made by Hindoos and Mahomedans against the Gospel: this was printed in the Church Missionary Record for February last, p. 33.

AGRA.

An Examination has taken place of the School at this Station. The Scholars were examined in the Scriptures, in the several languages in which they are taught; viz. English, Persian, and Hinduwee; and in various Elementary Works suited to their ages.

MEERUT.

A beautiful Chapel has been built at this Station, by a Native Princess; concerning which it is stated, in the Calcutta Report—

The expense of erecting the Chapel, and the balustrade-wall surrounding its compound, was wholly and liberally defrayed by her Highness the Begum, as well as of the furniture in the interior; the cost amounting to 7000 rupees. Here numbers crowd to hear the Word of Life; not only consisting of the regular Congregation of Native Christians, but many unbaptized inquirers after Truth, both Hindoos and Mussulmans, to whom it is exceedingly acceptable to witness and hear the worship of God conducted in the Hindoostanee Language.

KURNAUL.

At this Station the Native Catechist, Anund Messeeh, is employed. The Rev. Dr. Parish states concerning him—

I am truly happy to report, that Anund Messeeh is going on steadily; and though little present fruit appears, there is, no doubt, a great deal of good in his labours. He reads and expounds a chapter every Monday morning, in my verandah, to a very considerable number of poor creatures; goes into the city twice a week to address the people; and also occasionally visits, for the same purpose, the neighbouring villages. He has a considerable knowledge of native medicines, and is daily applied to by sick persons for them: of all these opportunities for religious instruction he avails himself.

BAREILLY.

At this place, Peter Dilsook is still employed under the Chaplain of the Station; but no recent account has been received of his proceedings.

On the state of feeling produced by the labours of these various Missionaries the Committee would observe, that the Natives themselves appear to be fully sensible of the change going on amongst them. At Meerut, while the Missionary was discoursing, a Brahmin stood up, and said: "In fifty years there will no more be a worshipper of Gunga; we shall all be joined with you, and become Christians. You do wisely, therefore, in trying to remove superstition from our hearts, by distributing your books."

At the same place, being the last day of the fair, when people were going away, the Missionary relates—

As they passed my tent, men and women stopped in numbers to take books and converse a little; exclaiming, as they passed us,

"The days are coming when we shall all be of this faith; for there is no more power remaining in Gunga." "Because," said other women in answer, "there is no more love for Gunga."—I never saw women come forward to take books as they have now done; and they were not women of low caste, but Brahminees: they could read the books which were offered them, and gladly took them away.

The Missionaries, moreover, argue with the Natives, and confute them from their own books. Mr. Sandys relates—

August 1, 1831—Two persons called, who conversed upon the efficacy of bathing in the Ganges for taking away sin. I showed them a copy of the 'True Refuge,' which one read aloud; and both were somewhat staggered to find that it proved in the outset, and that from their own Shasters, that bathing in the Ganges cannot wash away the defilements of the mind. The passages translated are as follow:—"Gunga cannot make pure the person who repeatedly commits sin. If a person, whose heart is impure, should scour himself with a mountain of earth, and wash himself in all the water of the Ganges until the time of his death, yet he will neither become pure, nor obtain deliverance from sin."

The Natives, however, feel themselves greatly embarrassed by the state of the Hindoo law of inheritance. A Native convinced of the truth of the Christian Religion, yet states, that "if he neglect to light the funeral pile, after the decease of the parent, and perform the funereal idolatrous ceremonies, he shall lose his caste; and when caste is lost he shall no longer have any claim upon his property." Thus it often happens in India, that if a Convert embraces Christianity, he must forsake father, mother, brothers and sisters, all his relatives and former connexions, and sometimes house and lands, for the sake of the Gospel.

We have reason to believe that the attention of the Indian Government has been directed to this subject. The adjustment of this question will probably involve considerable difficulties; but being taken up, as we trust it is, with a sincere desire to settle it equitably toward those Natives who are disposed to embrace Christianity, we have no doubt they will ultimately be overcome.*

MADRAS AND SOUTH-INDIA MISSION.

Appointment of a Secretary to the Corresponding Committee.

VARIOUS circumstances having rendered it expedient to assist the operations of the Madras Corresponding Committee by the appointment of a Clerical Secretary from home, the Committee have much pleasure in stating that this situation has been accepted by the Rev. John Tucker, B.D. Fellow of Corpus Christi College, Oxford; and late Minister of Southborough, Kent. Mr. Tucker sailed for his destination, April the 21st.

MADRAS.

Of the Perambore Seminary, the Rev. C. Blackman makes the following report, during a space of more than 12 months that it had been under his charge:—

Of the 24 Boys receiving instruction, 12 are Country-born or English Boys, and 12 are Native, including three Youths who form a Preparandi Class.

The subjects of study are, in Languages, Tamul, Teloogoo, Hebrew, Greek, and English.

In Tamul their progress is very creditable: the First Class, consisting of 6 Boys, are able to construe into English any part of the New Testament, without the use of a Lexicon. I have one Class in Hebrew, consisting of 7 Boys, English and Native. They have read about 40 chapters in Genesis, some in Exodus, and a few of the Psalms. The most intelligent of the Boys are able to construe into English, with the use of the Lexicon, any of the historical parts of the Old Testament.

In English there are two Classes in Geography. The first Class, consisting of 7 Boys, have committed to memory the boundaries of the countries of Europe and Asia, together with the divisions, towns, &c., mentioned in the large print of that work; carefully looking out all the places on the map*.

At this Station, the Rev. Edmund Dent, a Native Ordained Missionary, continues to labour with diligence. He had formerly been a Catechist in the Society's Missions; and the Committee rejoice to see that such a sentiment as the following still accompanies him in the exercise of a higher office:—

I feel assured, from the experience which I had when a Catechist, that unless a Servant of Christ can stoop and humble himself to see the poor of his flock in their mean huts and cottages, and to dispense the Word of eternal life to them in as familiar a manner as possible, he will see but little fruit of his labours. The work of his hands will not prosper, as can be desired; and he may often have to weep in his closet in private for the ill success for his ministry.

Mourning over the improper conduct of one of the Schoolmasters, and the inconstancy of some of the new Converts, he observes—

So long as the world exists, and there is a Congregation in it, we shall always find good and bad blended together; the chaff among the corn; the tares among the wheat. This is not a state of perfection, but of probation.

Upon the important subject of Native-Female Education, Mr. Dent mentions—

* The Report of the various Branches of Education, and of the proficiency made by the Scholars in each, may be seen in the Church Missionary Record for 1832, p.194.

Some of the more intelligent Natives are convinced of the necessity of Females being taught to read and write, and that they should possess equal privileges with themselves, without any distinction whatever; and, though they do not send them to our Schools, yet they get private tutors to instruct them.

With reference to the spirit of conformity to Heathenish customs in some of the professing Christians, he relates—

Feb. 23, 1831—Met a Christian this morning who had the heathen mark on his forehead. Reproved him sharply for it, and he rubbed it off in my presence; but I fear, from what he spoke in support of it, that he will put it on as soon as he leaves me. Some Christians are ashamed to let it be known publicly that they are such, lest they should endure shame and persecution for the sake of Christ; and therefore they endeavour to assimilate themselves to the Heathen in every possible manner.

MAYAVERAM.

The Rev. J. C. T. Winckler, and a Native Catechist, Devaperasaden, are labouring at this Station. The decline of Idolatry here is marked by the determination of the people to destroy a tree which they had been accustomed to worship. The following particulars are collected from the Journal of the Rev. J. Devasagayam:—

Aug. 2, 1831—The people, as well as their forefathers, have adored it as a sacred tree, and offered sheep, fowls, swine, wine, &c., once a year. They never led strangers near it, fearing that they would be hurt by the great Viran. If they were sometimes obliged to rest or sleep under the shade of the tree, they never ventured to stretch their feet toward its side or trunk, expecting to be hurt by the Viran for their disrespect to him.

At first they cut several large boughs from it for the School-room, which we now use also as a Place of Worship; and this day they cut down the whole tree itself, to the great wonder and fear of many of the inhabitants of this place.

The head old man was ill a few days ago, after he had cut some boughs from the tree for the School. The people immediately said that Viran had punished him. This the old man heard; and wanted to cut the tree down at once, to show that he and his people are not afraid of it; but that they trust the Great God Almighty. I rejoiced much to see the steadiness of our new Converts.

TINNEVELLY.

At this Station, which has so deeply and so justly drawn the attention of Christians during the last few years, the contest between Christ and Belial is evidently going on. Of one of the villages, the Rev. C. T. E. Rhenius relates—

June 25, 1831—Asirvadam returned yesterday from a visit among several Congregations in the neighbourhood. At Kalankarei, there were lately only eight families who had been instructed in Christianity. When Asirvadam arrived, all the village came together to hear, and afterward declared their resolution to embrace Christianity—in all 63 or 64 families. Asirvadam told them, that, in proof of their sincerity, they should destroy their idol, Ramasamy. Some of the headmen were willing; but some of the rest, particularly the women, were afraid. Asirvadam left them considering the subject. They then agreed upon it; and in a few minutes they had the stone Idol torn up, and cast out of the temple. This is certainly remarkable, and shows, whatever their motive may be, that they will be rid of idolatry. To cast out an Idol, which they worshipped from their infancy, is no small thing.

Mr. Rhenius felt so strongly the importance and difficulty of adequately meeting the spiritual wants of this district, that he had found it indispensable to place the Catechists upon a more systematic footing:—

Feb. 2, 1831—Considered the necessity of appointing District Head Catechists; who shall have a number of other Catechists under their care; travel about among them; advise them; and examine the state of the Congregation in each village; ascertain their advancement in knowledge, particularly of the Catechism, &c. &c. The enlargement of our sphere imperiously requires such an arrangement; because our strength now must necessarily be too much divided. The same strength which, four or five years ago, was with difficulty bestowed upon 20 Congregations, or Catechist Stations, must now provide for 70.

It is not to be supposed that success should be unattended by painful instances of backsliding or apostacy. The recording of these befits the fidelity of a Missionary's narrative, and furnishes useful matter of consideration to every reflecting reader. Mr. Rhenius thus affectingly relates the feelings of one of the penitents, on the occasion of his backsliding:—

He numbers up five causes of his downfall: 1. Pride, with love of praise. 2. Love of money. 3. Not considering the end. 4. Stifling the warnings of his conscience. 5. Neglect of reading, praying, and meditation. Unbelief, he says, is the millstone now hung round his neck.

Calumny had been employed, in order to weaken Mr. Rhenius's confidence in the Catechists: but the inquiries to which this led, tended, in the main, more fully to establish their character. Mr. Rhenius states—

Aug. 3, 1831—Yesterday a Letter was found at the door of my study. It had no signature; but the writer charges many Catechists with flagrant crimes, particularly the Head Catechists. Though it bears marks of being a production of envy and malice, yet I took up the matter seriously; for a little stir of this kind is good.

Aug. 4—To-day we had a thorough sifting of the affair, as far as we could. The accused persons have cleared themselves, to the satisfaction of all. The rest we have committed solemnly to the watchful care of our Heavenly Master. If there is any thing wrong, He will bring it to light. The Catechists seem more and more to become thorns in the eyes of their enemies.

But a bitterer spirit, though not more base than that of calumny, is continually breaking out on the part of the Heathen against their converted neighbours. The accounts of this nature received by the Committee are truly afflictive, and demand the earnest prayers of the Members of the Society, that the Converts may be rendered faithful to their vows, and be firmly established in the profession which they have made. One instance of this Mr. Rhenius thus relates—

Oct. 1, 1831—The Catechist, Jacob of Kuruvenkotei, was brought in this morning on a cot, with wounds on his head and stripes on his back: others of the Congregation have also been wounded, one severely on his head. The headman has been treated worse than all, having a deep wound in his head, his arm broken, and other wounds in his body. Our people had been fishing in the river, and were returning home, when their enemies, the Brahmins of a neighbouring village, which they had to pass, waylaid them, with Maravers and others, and fell upon them with clubs, &c. In all, eight persons have been thus maltreated; because they will not submit to the spoliations and oppressions of the Brahmins, but endeavour to get their rights by lawful means.

Oct. 3—This evening the old headman of Kuruvenkotei was brought in; and it was shocking to look at his body; he could hardly move a limb without pain. He was sensible, and appeared pretty comfortable in his mind.

These Converts had, upon some pretence, been thrown into prison. Mr. Rhenius thus relates the joy experienced upon occasion of their being honourably acquitted and liberated by the judge:—

Nov. 23, 1831—To-day, the judge examined the case of Jacob and his companions, who had been thrown into prison. We were of course in anxious expectation for the result, during the day. In the afternoon the joyful news came, that the judge has rejected the case as false, or at least as unsupported; and not long after, Jacob and the other Kuruvenkotei people came, delivered from prison and from the hands of those wicked Brahmins. I think our feelings were somewhat similar to those of the Church in Jerusalem, when they had prayed for the deliverance of Peter from the hand of Herod. In the evening, we publicly gave thanks to the Lord for the great consolation granted to us.

Mr. Rhenius also mentions the case of a young woman, who, on account of her love for Christian Instruction, was cruelly used by her parents. He says—

They are great enemies to Christianity, and will not allow their daughter to attend Church: they keep her forcibly at home, whenever they can: they beat her, and otherwise treat her unmercifully, little short of murdering her. Still she is steadfast, and now and then continues to come to Church.

The Committee will only add, in reference to Tinnevely, one short incident, serving to show that the same interest is there taken, as by ourselves, in the great work which God is manifestly working in the earth. Mr. Rhenius mentions—

Feb. 5, 1831—The Schoolmasters were all at the Missionary

Prayer-Meeting this Evening. It was already nine o'clock; but they were desirous of sitting still longer. We took a short view of what has been doing in the world, for its salvation, during the last thirty years.

NILGHERRY HILLS.

The Rev. J. B. Morewood continues in charge of the Nilgherry Hills' Establishment, having under his care several of the Missionaries' Children.

COTTAYAM.

Since Mr. Morewood left Cottayam, the College has been superintended by the Rev. H. Baker.

A Letter from Mr. Baker to the Rev. F. Spring, of December 1st, 1831, supplies the following information:—

There are now nearly 100 Students in the College, one half of whom, at least, are Deacons; and there are, perhaps, from 10 to 15 more to come.

It is proposed that, hereafter, the number of Students received into the College should be smaller than at present, with a view to the greater efficiency of their education.

ALLEPIE.

At this Station, the Rev. T. Norton reports his engagements to be as follows:—

Every Lord's-day I have two full Services: and on the first Sunday in the month, the Lord's Supper. These Services in Malayalam are half as long again as in English, even omitting some parts as I do. On Thursday Evening, Service again; and a Prayer Meeting on Monday Evenings, when I expound a portion of Scripture. From 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. I am daily engaged in translating; except two days at the beginning of each month, when I examine the Children of both Schools.

He states that there are favourable indications in the Girls' School:—

Dec. 4, 1830—This evening, Mrs. Norton went into the Girls' Room, expecting to see them dispose themselves for sleeping; but was unexpectedly gratified, by finding them arranging for reading the Scriptures and Prayer among themselves.

Of one young woman, Mr. Norton relates, that she had declined from her professions of piety, and, after a few days' illness, had, at the early age of seventeen, been cut off:—

We formerly (says Mr. Norton) had the greatest hopes of her possessing real piety; but being of late too much with some of her connexions, the lamp waxed dim. I would hope the light did not wholly go out, but that she was enabled to trim it at the approach of the Bridegroom.—Committed her remains to the grave in the evening, when I addressed those present.*

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

THE Labourers in the Western Department of the Society's Indian Mission are, the Rev. Messrs. William Mitchell, Charles Pinhorn Farrar, and John Dixon.

Previously to the Rev. W. Mitchell's resuming his labours in this Mission, its situation and prospects were carefully considered by the Committee. The result of their deliberations was, the determination to transfer the seat of the Mission to the eastern side of the Ghauts (Mountain Passes) in the Deccan. This arrangement admitted of the further important advantage of concentrating the labours of the Mission upon one point; and of making such a distribution of the labours of each individual as was calculated at once to facilitate, combine, and render effective the labours of the whole.

Ahmednuggur was selected by the Committee as the seat of the Mission. On the arrival out of Mr. Mitchell, however, it was found that that place had been previously occupied by the American Missionaries. The Corresponding Committee therefore fixed on Nassuck, likewise in the Deccan, as being well calculated to give effect to the views of the Committee.

Nassuck is a large town and place of pilgrimage, principally inhabited by Brahmins, and estimated to contain 30,000 inhabitants. It is the seat and centre of Brahminism in the Deccan.

The situation of a Missionary in this part of India calls for special consideration. In the Northern and Southern spheres of labour in the Indian Empire there have been Missionaries for a long series of years; but in Bombay, and in Western India generally, Missions are of comparatively modern date. Hence the Labourer in these regions meets with many difficulties, which in other quarters have been surmounted, and with but few circumstances to cheer and encourage him. He is sowing in tears, while in other parts of India some of the Missionaries appear to have begun reaping with joy.

The above-mentioned Missionaries have already proceeded into the interior. In reference to their former sphere of labour, copious extracts have been published in the Record, from the Journal of Mr. Dixon. He relates—

Feb. 3, 1832—When addressing my servants, as usual, this morning, after I had read and made observations upon part of a chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel, in which some of the Saviour's miracles are related, I asked an old man, who was present, if he had any idea for what purpose Christ wrought such miracles?" He replied, "It might be, to make a living." Such was the deplorably ignorant answer he gave, after having been told to-day, and some days past, the nature and end of Christ's appearance in our world!

I cannot say yet that I have any Public Service with Natives. I have Worship with my servants, in Mahratta, every morning and evening ; in which I read, and, in the morning, expound, a portion of Scripture, and pray. These persons now know something of the leading truths of our Religion ; but I do not yet perceive that they are much impressed by them. I find that the main difficulty does not lie in finding words and matter for preaching, even in a foreign tongue ; but in keeping up that frame of mind, that deep sense of spiritual things, that solemnity and seriousness, faith and love, without which we cannot preach aright.

The Missionaries state, also, that a Publication had been undertaken by the Natives at Bombay, which, though not so intended, could not fail eventually to open the way for Christian Truth :—

Jan. 9, 1832—The Pundit brought us the First Number of the Durpan, a Newspaper undertaken by some Mahrattas in Bombay. The object of this Paper is, “to open a field for free and public discussion of points connected with the prosperity of this country, religion, literature, the arts and sciences, &c.” This is the first thing of the kind published in Mahratta ; and I believe this also to be the case with regard to a small Tract, which the Pundit also brought, written in defence of Hindooism, by a Brahmin. These Idolaters are lending their hands to pull down their own pagodas, and are clearing the ground for Christian Temples*.

CEYLON MISSION.

THE Committee feel great comfort in being able to state, that a spirit of harmony and co-operation greatly prevails among the Missionaries at this Station : this spirit is very much promoted by the regularity with which the Missionaries assemble together for the purposes of united prayer, conference, and deliberation.

COTTA.

In reference to the Ministry, the Missionaries state :—

The return of the Rev. J. Bailey, in January, and the accession of two or three in addition to the number of those who do not understand Cingalese, has occasioned our beginning, since that period, an English Service in the forenoon. This has hitherto been conducted by the Rev. S. Lambrick ; while the Cingalese Forenoon Service, at the same Station, has been performed by the Rev. Messrs. Bailey and Selkirk ; the one preaching, and the other reading the Church Prayers ; taking these duties alternately. The English Service is attended by the Tamul Youths in the Institution, and by the English Schoolmaster, as well as by the English at the Station ; with the exception of Mrs. Lambrick, who accompanies her School Girls to the Cingalese Service.

At the Out-Stations, the Senior Missionary preaches once, and the other two generally twice, every Lord's-day. Divine Service has been performed nearly every Sunday throughout the year at the School of Ratnapetiya, on the first Sunday in the month by the Rev. J. Selkirk, and on the others by the Catechist. The Service at Pagoda School, on the alternate Thursday Mornings, is still kept up: and though the number attending is still small, Mr. Selkirk continues his ministrations among them; and we would trust that his labours are not in vain. Mr. Selkirk has also, since the middle of May, commenced, on the Friday Evenings, a Meeting, with Expositions of the Scriptures, at the house of the Young Woman who is engaged as a Teacher of Lace-making in the Girls' School.

The Cotta Institution forms the Mission Seminary of this Mission. Attaching to it the importance we do, the proficiency of the Youths under instruction is a cause of much thankfulness and encouragement. The Governor, Sir R. W. Horton, has attended an examination of the Youths, and expressed much satisfaction at what he witnessed.

Of the Girls' School, the Cotta Report states—

The Girls' School, under the superintendence of Mrs. Lambrick, has increased in numbers. And so has the Female Sunday School, which is connected with it. In the Girls' School there were, at the end of June, 53 names on the List; and in the Female Sunday School, 73 names. This increase has made it necessary to enlarge the building in which they are instructed. The length of it, at first, was 35 feet; it is now 50 feet: the breadth is the same as before. The number of Lessons repeated by the Girls, last June, was 891: this, allowing for the difference of numbers on the roll, may be considered as the monthly average throughout the year.

The operations of the Press at this Station are assuming a character of great importance. The publications of the year 1831 are enumerated as follows:—Cingalese, 15,550; English, 1100; Miscellaneous, 3750; making a total of 20,400.

It is not to be doubted that the opposition made by the Heathen Priests to the Tracts of our Missionaries will eventually give them still greater notoriety and popularity. The Rev. J. Selkirk gives the following account:—

The Priests, it is said, have met in several places, to the number of 20 or 30, in order to consider what are the best modes to be adopted to put the Press down, and to prevent the evil effects which it is likely to have on their craft.

May 26, 1831—On going to the temple at Cotta this evening, about nine o'clock, the first thing that presented itself to our notice was a large branch of a tree which had been put at the entrance of a labyrinth leading to a small temple: the branch was covered with sheets of paper. As we could not distinctly see what this paper was, we took no notice of it for some time, thinking that it was a part of the ornaments of the door-way: but, on inquiry, we found that these pieces of paper were the Tracts that had been distributed among the people; and that they had been put there by command of the Priests, to show their own hatred of us, and to let the people know that they despised all our efforts to prevent worshippers going to their temples.

KANDY.

In addition to the regular preaching to the Heathen, it is stated—

The preaching at the Jail, in Cingalese, on Sunday Evenings, is still continued. The prisoners occasionally listen attentively; but in general they appear very careless. Still, as many by this means hear the Word of God who would not otherwise have an opportunity of becoming acquainted with it, and as the period of their confinement is a salutary one for cultivating serious reflections, it seems desirable to continue this Service, though no decided benefit appears to arise from it.

BADDAGAME.

At this Station it is reported—

The Congregation at Church on Sundays is pretty good; but consists almost entirely of those whose worldly interest it is to attend. The number of Children coming from the School is now larger than it was a few months ago; a circumstance generally occurring shortly before Christmas, when the rewards are given: and a larger number of poor people attend, who expect alms in food or clothing, particularly about that season. The Girls' School has afforded us greater satisfaction this year than heretofore.

NELLORE.

From this Station a Paper has been addressed to the Committee by one of the Society's oldest Missionaries, which was printed in the Record for July last, in which, at much length and with considerable ability, the obstacles to the progress of Christianity are described. An attentive perusal of this document will powerfully convince the reader that Missionaries in the East have indeed to wrestle with the powers of darkness, with spiritual wickednesses in high places, and with inveterate prejudices and habits of long-established idolatries.

Besides the regular engagements of the Ministry, the Rev. J. Knight reports concerning Education—

In the plan of conducting the Schools, but little alteration has been made. The Monthly Examinations, by which the Master's pay is regulated, are still continued; the Children attending at the Station for that purpose. The Children are brought to Church twice a week, Sunday Mornings and Thursday Afternoons, to attend Divine Worship.*

After what has been now reported concerning the four last-named Missions in the Diocese of Calcutta, the Committee feel justified in asserting that a great work has been not only begun, but is in some degree rooted in that vast Empire. After ages of ignorance which have overshadowed the Natives of the East, it may justly be said, that, to no inconsiderable extent, The True Light now shineth.

In the three Indian Presidencies it is not unimportant to remark, that the Blessing from on High appears to have been nearly proportioned to the degree of exertion contributed to each. In the Southern Presidency, where Protestant Missions have been the longest known, the indications of the Divine Blessing have been the most clearly marked. In the Northern Presidency, a widely-extended work is advancing, among various classes of the population. On the Western side, where our labours have been more scanty, and of more recent date, we have had least fruit, and most discouragement.

It is, moreover, with peculiar satisfaction that the Committee advert to one statement, made on good authority in India, concerning the labours of our Missionaries. The opinion, it is stated, gains ground, that mere Education is not sufficient to meet the wants and feelings of Society in India. "The movement has been made upon the native mind, in India," during a period now of considerably more than twenty years; "and men there will not rest in their present attainments. The attempt of theorists to satisfy mankind by the mere knowledge of what may prove useful to them in a temporal point of view, has been followed by disappointment."—"How could it be otherwise?" writes the Rev. T. Dealtry, "seeing that God has ordained but one remedy for the spiritual cure of man." "The Missionaries," he adds, "feel the truth of this strongly, and they go directly to work." The Committee rejoice in this testimony to their labours; and are persuaded that the Members of the Society at large will fully re-echo the sentiment, that it is only by the simple and affectionate preaching of Jesus Christ and Him crucified that the millions of India will be turned from the power of Satan unto God.

AUSTRALASIA MISSION.

NEW HOLLAND.

THE Rev. Messrs. Watson and Handt had, at the date of the latest accounts, set off from Parramatta for Wellington Valley, the place fixed on as the first Missionary Station among the Aborigines of New Holland.

NEW ZEALAND.

Rangihoua.

Of the Natives at and near this Station, Mr. King gives the following very satisfactory account:—

Dec. 26, 1831—The behaviour of the Natives in general gives hope. Some of them have attained a good deal of Bible Knowledge. A party of Natives was here a few weeks ago, on a Sunday: in the evening they collected together on the beach. One asked questions out of the Catechism, without any book, and the others answered: what one had forgotten, the others remembered. They then gave out a Hymn, and sang it; repeated the Confession and Prayers of their book; and closed with the Lord's Prayer. Afterward, they were attentive, and desirous to know the meaning of God's words, and different sentences in the Prayers, &c.

Kerikeri.

One of the Missionaries placed at this, the second, Station, thus reports:—

During the last quarter, I have been able to visit the Natives, on the Sabbath, at two villages, where we have sometimes met from 150 to 200 Natives: the name of the principal residence is Takou, about twelve miles distant from Kerikeri, on the north coast; where we have, within reach of our Settlement, at not more than twenty miles' distance at the furthest, from 500 to 600 Natives. Many are anxious to be instructed; and have expressed their strong desire for us to visit them regularly, which I hope we shall be able to do on the Sunday, and endeavour to form a Congregation to hold Service with on Sundays.

It is also remarked:—

For want of more Translations of the Scriptures, the Natives are almost at a stand: some have committed to memory all that has been printed: I hope this will soon be remedied by more being printed. Many of the Boys can read very well. The desire to learn to read is growing more and more amongst the Natives at large; and this encourages us to look forward to the time, which does not appear at a great distance, when all shall be able to read the Scriptures for themselves in their own tongue; which must be a great blessing to them, sooner or later.

The following account is given of the state of the Schools:—

The Girls' School has been conducted by Mrs. Kemp, Mrs. Baker, and Mrs. Chapman. The behaviour of the Natives has been uniformly good. We have living with us, and who attend School, 22 Women and Girls, and 47 Men and Boys.

The particulars which follow, of the death of a New-Zealand Convert, need no remark:—

May 14, 1832—This morning, at 8 o'clock, died poor Ann Waiapu, at Kerikeri, full of faith and of the Holy Ghost. She held fast her faith even unto the end. She had long made a profession of Religion, and was among the first who were admitted to the Ordinance of Baptism at Kerikeri. Since then she has adorned her profession by a godly and consistent life. As a wife and a mother, she may be held up as an example to all the Natives. During her last illness I admitted her with her husband to a participation in the Supper of the Lord. Yesterday was the only time she has been sensible for many days. She said, 'O my husband! But I have two husbands—Jesus is one. Poor James! poor James! I am going to my Husband and Saviour, and Friend in Heaven! Yes, to heaven above am I going. James, my other Husband, calls, and I must leave you. Will you come? Yes, my other Husband will lead you; and I shall be happy, and you will be happy, and we both shall be happy, happy, happy!' And then she sank into a slumber, and never afterward was sensible. It was a very affecting scene when she was dead. The father, with his face upon one cheek of the corpse; the husband at the feet; Rangī lying all along by the side, and gently rubbing the other cheek; the girls standing around, and the boys outside all weeping bitterly. It was too much for me, and I was obliged to go away and give vent to my over-powered feelings in my own bedroom. If we had all come to New Zealand only to effect, with God's blessing, this one conversion—to save this one soul—it was worth all we have done, or all we ever can do.

May 15—Went down to Kerikeri to bury poor Ann. All the Europeans and Natives attended the funeral. I delivered an address to the Europeans and Natives from Job xix. 26, 27. Ann's father was much affected: for my own part, I was obliged to sit down twice during the Service. I do hope that this day's employment will never be banished from my mind; nor from the minds of those who were present. I returned with a full heart to the Wai-mate after the conclusion of the Services.

Paihia.

The Rev. Henry Williams gives the following Report of an Examination of the Children, which took place at this Station:—

July 4, 1831—In the School are 66 Men and Boys, and 31 Women and Girls.

Dec. 21—At daylight, all in motion. At nine o'clock assembled for examination: Chapel well filled. After Prayers, Natives were examined—Boys outside, Girls within—until eleven o'clock: the English Children until one o'clock. At two o'clock, all belonging to the School, and several Chiefs, were served with baskets of potatoes and pork, and a roll of bread. In the evening, each had tea and a small cake. The work of the Girls was of the first order: each produced something: all passed off well.

Dec. 22—At nine o'clock assembled the Schools for the distribution of the prizes, nearly all of which fell to the Girls.

His brother, the Rev. William Williams, thus describes the manner of his performing Divine Service, on one occasion, to the Natives:—

Oct. 16, 1831: Sunday—For want of a bell, I had a gun fired at eight o'clock, when about 70 Natives came to the place where I slept; and behaved with great reverence and attention while I held Service with them.

He relates also the following very painful trait of the tempers and disposition of the unconverted Natives, whom he visited on account of what he calls a Native Baptism:—

Oct. 2, 1831: Sunday—Went to Kororariki. The Chiefs were assembled at a Native Baptism, which was concluded before I arrived.

The circumstance furnished me with a subject for conversation. The Natives on these occasions yield their offspring to the Devil; and pray that they may be courageous, cruel, and impudent; that they may kill their enemies, and take many slaves. Tetore says he cannot attend to what we say, until he returns from fighting at Tauranga; but that when he returns, he will give himself up to us.

Waimate.

The Rev. William Williams being on a visit to this Station, reports as follows concerning a Chief of whom favourable mention has been made in former times, but who had been discouraged by the Natives in his attempts to do them good:—

Ripi, the Chief of Máwi, still goes on in a promising way; but, on account of his perseverance in attending to good things, he meets with some of those trials which are incident to a true profession of Christianity. He has paid a few visits to a neighbouring tribe at Kaikohi, for the purpose of calling their attention to the truths which he has learnt to value. He came to-day, much cast down because he had received a message to discontinue his visits to that place; as Wárepórka of Rangihoua, and two Chiefs of Waimate, have sent to desire the Chief of Kaikohi not to attend to any thing which either Native or European Missionaries tell him. About ten Young Men from Kaikohi came with Ripi on Saturday, and stayed over the Sunday at Waimate.

Mr. Davis also states to the same effect —

Sept. 19, 1831—The grand enemy of souls seems to be considerably alarmed for the safety of his subjects in this land of darkness; as it is evident he is endeavouring to stir up a spirit of persecution amongst us. I informed you that the Chief, Ripi, was in the habit of going, with Aparahama, to talk with the Natives of Kaikohi, and that, from their reports, there appeared to be a way open for the preaching of the Gospel to that tribe; but at present there seem to be obstacles thrown in the way by the adversary. On Saturday a message was sent, to say that Ripi and Aparahama were not to go there again on a teaching errand. It appears that one of the Kaikohi Chiefs has been to the Bay, where he has been persuaded by different Chiefs not to pay any attention to what the Missionaries had to say; but to continue on in his native course, and do as his fathers did before him. But I hope good has already been done.

We had thirteen of the Natives here yesterday, for the purpose of attending Public Worship. One of the young men complained very much of the wicked conversation which was made use of toward them by their friends: even in their daily labour, he said, their conversation was so bad, that he and a few others were obliged to work by themselves, at a distance from them. I have been given to understand that some of these young men wish to come and live with us, in order to escape persecution, and learn, in quiet, the ways of truth and righteousness. This may be the best step which they can take, or perhaps that we can take for them, as their knowledge of the truths of God must be very scanty at present; consequently, they are not, humanly speaking, so well prepared to meet persecution as they will be hereafter, should the Lord be pleased to pour out His Holy Spirit into their souls. And, although the Chiefs have prohibited Aparahama and Ripi from visiting them, they have not yet prohibited the younger branches of their respective families from coming here, to hear the Gospel preached.

Some interesting particulars are given of a visit made by the Rev. H. Williams and one of the Catechists, Mr. Chapman, to the southern part of the island: it was peculiarly striking, in this tour, to observe how very anxious the Native Youths were to be taught reading. Mr. Williams relates of one place where they landed:—

After a little rest, the Natives came round, to talk. One young man began to ask the meaning of letters. I wrote them down for him; and in half an hour he knew them all, and was teaching several Natives outside. Numbers of others came, until I had no paper left of any description on which to write a copy. At length they brought small pieces, to have the letters written for them; and about 200, old and young, were soon employed teaching and learning the letters, with the greatest possible interest.

And again:—

Before Service commenced, the Boys brought their papers for me to hear them their letters. Most appeared to know them, and asked what they were to learn next. After Service, I addressed the Natives on the necessity of a New Birth, which brought on an interesting and important conversation among the Chiefs generally.

And the next day:—

The children came for fresh lessons to the last, even after we had taken our seats in the canoe. Can we question their desire for instruction?

It affords us satisfaction to add, that though the British Government decline to colonize the country, they have appointed a Consular Agent, Mr. James Busby, to reside on the Northern Island; both to watch over our commercial interests, as a considerable trade in Timber and Flax is now carried on between New Zealand and New South Wales; and, more especially, with the view of repressing the outrages and wrongs which have heretofore been perpetrated by British Subjects, to a frightful extent.

Thus within the short space of fifteen years we have seen, that amidst the most uncultivated and ferocious tribes—among men wild by nature, and exasperated by many unprovoked injuries—a footing has been obtained for those who desire to preach among them the unsearchable riches of Christ. Who but men having the mind of Christ could ever hope for success in such a work? But our Missionaries went, having their feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace: they have, in the Spirit of their Saviour's command, said, Peace be to this Island! and the Son of peace has rested there. Some of the New Zealanders have embraced the Truth, in the love of it; and some have given in a dying hour clear evidences, that they had obtained an interest in the Everlasting Covenant, and that they were about to sleep in Jesus. Meantime the blessed Scriptures are translating into their native tongue; the spirit of savage and exterminating war gradually yields to the arts of civil life; peace on the oceans that surround them will, we hope, be secured; and light and love will at length prevail, where hitherto men were found living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another. In all this the glory of Christ's power over rebel hearts is manifested; and the word of prophecy stands sure, *He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till He have set judgment and justice in the earth; and the Isles shall wait for His Law.

WEST-INDIES MISSION.

JAMAICA.

THE very painful state of things in the West Indies becomes every day more manifest, and draws forth from benevolent and intelligent Christians more earnest prayers to God, and more persevering endeavours to prevail with the Legislature, that the afflicting state of bondage in which so many thousands are there held may be speedily extinguished.

But for these circumstances, the Committee might have hoped to be able to report a good measure of success in that quarter: at present, it must suffice briefly to notice the labours of the Society in those regions.

At the station of Moore Town, Portland, Mr. Collins reports that there are several encouraging instances of individual good effected by his instrumentality. In a Letter, dated March 22, he says—

When a party of the people were required to be absent from the town, on duty, during the Sunday, two of the party, young men belonging to our School, sat in the woods, and regretted their absence from our Service, and longed to be present. They spoke to each other upon the subject; and at the hours when they concluded that we were engaged in prayer, they joined with us in spirit, saying, "Now they are employed in the Morning Service—now in such an exercise," &c.

Mr. Stearn had received permission to teach Children on Money-Musk, a neighbouring Property, to read; and several

* Copious and interesting details concerning the New-Zealand Mission will be found in the Church Missionary Record for 1832, pp. 206—216.

Managers of other Estates have expressed a wish for the establishment of a Central School in the District, at which, it is estimated, 300 Children might attend.

At the close of their Report, the Jamaica Committee, referring to the injurious influence produced upon Missionary Proceedings by the misconstruction put on them, in consequence of recent troubles, thus forcibly appeal to their Friends, in support of the Education of the Negro Population:—

The Committee would strongly impress upon the minds of their Friends here, and in the Mother Country, to use their best endeavours to obviate a prejudice so unworthy, as that which would ascribe to the instruction of Slaves those lamentable events, which instruction has the strongest tendency to hinder.

BRITISH GUIANA.

LEGUAN ISLAND—From a Letter of Mr. C. Carter, dated Leguan Island, October 16, 1832, we make an extract, which offers an encouraging prospect, on the whole; while, at the same time, it calls for much sympathy on the part of Christian Friends at home, when they hear how a faithful Labourer is affected, not only by the influence of a trying climate, but by the still more injurious moral atmosphere by which he is surrounded:—

I am thankful to Him, from whom spring the issues of life and death, that I am again quite recovered from the fever which I was troubled with when I wrote last. I was troubled with it occasionally for between two or three months, though I was only kept from my duties one entire Sunday; for which, when I remember that I have been in the Colony nearly five years, I have much reason for gratitude.

With regard to my duties, on the whole, they are very encouraging. The progress which the Creoles and Adults make in learning to read is very satisfactory: the Adults are increasing very much in number; some few of whom, I am happy to add, are evincing, by their conduct, that they have not learnt in vain. But, alas! the number is small, very small: few, as yet, have given up their sins, that is, the prevailing sins of the Colony; which, in consequence of their commonness, appear not to be sins, and are regarded as not being such; and which nothing but Divine Grace, and that in no common degree, can cause to be regarded as sins, and to be hated and forsaken.†

NORTH-WEST-AMERICA MISSION.

THE slow growth of this Mission is to be attributed to the very scattered state of the tribes to whom our Missionaries are sent. The Rev. D. T. Jones writes, however, in a very cheering spirit:—

† For more details concerning the West-Indies Mission, see Church Missionary Record for 1832, pp. 185—187; and 1833, pp. 9—12.

We have long wished and prayed for something interesting and encouraging to communicate respecting the Native Indians. Thank God! the time is arrived for a small beginning to be made; and we know who has said, The little one shall become a thousand. I have, for the last eight months, preached, through an interpreter, to a Congregation of 70 or 80 Indians, whose regular attendance, devout attention, and extreme desire to learn, afford every encouragement to proceed in the strength of the Lord. For several years, many Cree-Indian families, from between Hudson's Bay and Cumberland House, have been drifting to the Settlement, having connexions here among the half-castes and others. Last summer brought in about ten families; and among them some very old men, one of whom told me, when I questioned him on the subject, that he had left his own country not with a view of bettering his outward condition, but because he had heard that one from above had come to this world to save the souls of men, and he wished to learn something about Him. After consulting their half-caste relations, we determined on forming them into a small Congregation, and to assemble them at six on Sunday Evenings, regularly; which has been done with little or no interruption.

Mr. Jones further relates:—

On the 1st of May last, the New Church at the Grand Rapids was opened for Public Worship; and a most complete and comfortable place of Worship it is. To that part of the Settlement the finishing of this building must be a most important acquisition.

In the building of this Church the Rev. W. Cockran was personally much engaged; and he thus relates its opening by himself, contrasting his small Congregations at first with those now assembled:—

We had Divine Service in our new Church. The weather being favourable, most of the people of my neighbourhood were present. They were attentive, and seemingly enjoyed the whole Service. To-day I saw the great increase of attendants on the Ordinances of God since my first establishment at the Rapids. At first, my Congregation could all be accommodated in a private room in my dwelling-house; secondly, in the kitchen; thirdly, in the School-room; and by the time we have been able to finish our Church, which is 50 feet by 22 within the walls, and closely pewed, we can fill it well.

Mr. W. R. Smith, who is employed as Schoolmaster, has under his care, in the Establishment, 17 Boys and 6 Girls of different Tribes. Their progress is encouraging; but they appear as yet careless on the subject of Religion: they work cheerfully, when required to labour on the farm. The number of Day Scholars has been increased by some Swampy Cree Indians, of whom Mr. Smith remarks—

I feel happy in being able to state, that no Children can be more regular and cleanly in their appearance than these poor Children. They are learning very fast: they have adopted the fashion and customs of Europeans: they have cropt their heads; and they otherwise comport themselves after the manners and customs of the Europeans whom they see here. The greater part of the Children here seem to be altogether their own masters ; do every day what is most agreeable ; eat when they please ; waste what they please ; sleep when, where, and how they please. They never think for a moment that they ought to make themselves useful to their parents, be faithful to their interests, reverence them, strive to make them comfortable, and obey them. No : from their infancy they go astray ; and because their parents neglect to use the rod, therefore they are never brought back. It is an unusual thing for a Native to correct a child for any offence whatever. He will beat his wife without mercy, on the slightest provocation ; but it is viewed as cruel and tyrannical to chastise children.

Thus are the extremes of severity and fondness exhibited in the domestic circles of these roving and untutored Tribes. But in proportion as He, who setteth the solitary in families, shall bless the labours of our Missionaries at this Station, we may expect to see the feebler sex honourably protected, Christian discipline established, and the rising generation brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.*

CONCLUDING REMARKS.

ON a review of the past year, the Committee feel that they are called upon to raise another monument of praise to that Almighty Friend, who hitherto has helped them.

The statements already made in reference to the Funds demonstrate, that the sympathies of the Members of the Society have been strongly awakened on its behalf, and that, in a moment of peril, its friends were found to be neither few nor faint-hearted. It is not among the least gratifying circumstances, to observe that the Contributors in Ireland have, in this instance, kept up their exertions, at a moment when they had difficulties of their own to contend with ; but, with a characteristic generosity of spirit, they have shown, that while with one hand they were not unwilling to receive contributions for their distressed Clergy, with the other hand they were prompt to give for the perishing Heathen. The efforts made, consequently, among the Members of our Church in the Sister Island may be regarded as an indication, that they have felt how true is that saying of the Lord Jesus, that It is more blessed to give than to receive.

The Committee notice the liberality of the Public at large with the greater pleasure, inasmuch as it has extricated them from a very painful emergency. They commenced their labours this year peculiarly in the spirit of simple faith. A conscientious feeling of duty bade them be ready, at the arrival of any post, not only to retrench, but absolutely to cut off some branches of their useful plans. Yet they ventured forward, depending upon God, and upon the Christian Spirit of the Church at large; and it has pleased God to show them that their faith was not vain.

And while the Funds have prospered, the Committee have also to report, that the offers for Missionary Service have not abated. At the same time, the Committee feel themselves bound to inform the Christian Public, that they have not invariably found among Candidates either that simple self-devotedness, or that enlarged understanding of Scripture Truth, which must ever form the essential characteristics of a good Missionary. The responsibility which attends the acceptance or the refusal of a Candidate is such as can be felt only by those, who have borne a part in the choice and actual direction of Labourers. The Committee therefore venture respectfully, but strongly and explicitly, to draw the attention of their Clerical and other friends to this important subject.

Together with the success which has attended the efforts of the Society at home, the Committee would combine a view of that measure of blessing which the Great Head of the Church has vouchsafed to its operations abroad. The details already presented concerning each Mission may render it superfluous to enlarge upon this subject; yet when it is considered that the different kinds of labour—whether in the duties of the Ministry, or in Education, or in printing valuable works, or in forming Settlements in savage lands—have continued to advance with gradual prosperity, is there not reason to believe that the hand of God has been on us for good, and that the sanctifying and quickening influences of the Holy Spirit have been richly granted to our arduous and diversified Missionary undertakings?

But the Committee feel that the friends and supporters of this Society would be far from satisfied, if their contemplations were limited merely to the visible success and good order of the operations of the past year. There are still in reserve infinite and unspeakable benefits conferred by God, through the labours of this Society, upon thousands, whose voice we never shall hear, and whose face we never shall see in the flesh. The Committee would bespeak on this solemn occasion a devout remembrance of all those spiritual blessings, which flow on without ceasing from the Fountain of Life, through all the parched and desert regions of this sinful world. It is not for us to know how many—but we may well believe that VERY MANY destitute Children of Adam have thus been brought to the knowledge of their Father which is in Heaven; that many a widow's heart has been made to sing for joy; and that there has been joy in the presence of the Angels of God over many a returning Sinner. The number of these fruits of our labours remains unknown to us; although the slightest authentic relation of some of them would, no doubt, cause the bosom of every spiritual Christian to thrill with ecstasy. But they are all truly recorded in the book of God's remembrance, and will be celebrated by the Members of His heavenly kingdom throughout eternal ages.

Such a review as this, the Committee would observe, may well excite, not only thankfulness, but hope. We live, indeed, in a period of the world when the hearts of many are failing them for fear, and for looking for those things which are coming upon the earth. But those alarms, which absorb and overwhelm the Children of this world, are designed to lead the Children of God more closely to examine into the ground of their hopes; and the more closely they examine, the more they are confirmed in the assurance, that their faith is founded upon a Rock. It is true, our own experience, and our sympathy also with kindred Institutions, may well teach us somewhat to moderate our exultation at the state of our Funds, and not to trust in the uncertain riches of a single year's Income; but the experience of the Church constrains us to put an unshaken and never-failing trust in the Living God, whose mercies can never be exhausted. Many, in the present day, likewise tremble at the accelerated rapidity with which every movement advances; but the Servants of God, cautious in their humility, conscious of their weakness, dependent on Divine Wisdom, and constantly imploring from on High the spirit of power, of love, and of a sound mind, feel it to be both their duty and their privilege to be careful for nothing. They may rest in the assurance, that when Christ says, Behold I come quickly, He will come invested with His own characteristic glories, and that He will in His majesty ride prosperously, in truth, in meekness, and in righteousness.

Such trust, then, the Society may have through Christ to God-ward; not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves, but our sufficiency is of God. The Committee, in resigning their charge to those who shall be appointed for the ensuing year, feel that there is at present no ground left, upon which the lukewarm or the timid can for a moment stand; yet at the same time there is need to rejoice with trembling. Christ the Purifier, whose eyes are as a flame of fire, is continually watching over His Church. When we slumber, He rebukes and chastens ; when, through His Spirit, we are roused to discover our own sinfulness, and to feel anew the claims which a fallen world has upon us, He will again revive the heart of the contrite ones ; He will cause the joy of the Lord to be our strength ; and will beautify the meek with salvation.

LEGACIES.

By the Third Law of the Society, Executors paying Bequests to the amount of Fifty Pounds become Members of the Society for Life. If there be more Executors than one, and the Legacy be not of sufficient amount to constitute each Executor a Member for Life, the Executor first named in the Will is considered to be the Member.

Legacies under 100l. which have been acknowledged in former Years are omitted in the present List.
